STATUTE made at NORTHAMPTON;
In the SECOND Year of the Reign of K. EDWARD the THIRD after the Conquest.

*Ex magno Rot. Stat. in Turr. Lond.
m. 28.*

N^{re} ſeign^r le Roi Edward, le tierz ap̄s le conqueſte, a ſon plement tenuz a Norh't as trois ſemeins de Pasch, Lan de ſon regne ſecund, deſiraunt q̄ la pees de ſa tr̄e, & les leis & eſtatuſ avant ces heures ordenez & uſez, ſoient gardez & meintenuz en touz poyn̄z, Al hon^r de dieu & de ſainte eglise, & a cōe pfit du poeple, p̄ aſſent des Prelatz, Countes & Barons & autres ḡantz, & tote la cōe du roialme, au dit plement ſomons, ordena & eſtablit en meisme le plement les choses ſonthescrites en la forme q̄ ſensuit.

OUR lord King Edward, the third after the conqueſte, at his Parliament holden at Northampton, at the three weeks of Easter, in the ſecond year of his reign, deſiring that the peace of his land, and his laws and statutes, ordained and used before this time, may be kept and maintained in all points; to the honour of God and of Holy Church, and to the common profit of the people, by aſſent of the prelates, earls, barons, and other great men, and all the commonalty ſummoned to the ſame Parliament, hath ordained and established in the ſaid Parliament these things underwritten, in form following.

Item, whereas offenders have been greatly encouraged, because [the ¹] charters of pardon have been so easily granted in times past, of manslaughters, robberies, felonies, and other trespasses against the peace; it is ordained and enacted, that such charter shall not be granted, but only where the King may do it by his oath, that is to say, where a man slayeth another in his own defence, or by misfortune: [Rep., Stat. Law Rev. Act, 1863.] And also they have been encouraged, because that [² the justices of gaol-delivery, and of oyer and terminer, have been procured by great men ³] against the form of the statute made in the xxvij year of the reign of King Edward, grandfather to our lord the King that now is, wherein is contained, that justices assigned to take assises, if they be laymen, shall make deliverance; and if the one be a clerk, and the other a layman, that the lay judge, with another of the country associate to him, shall deliver the gaols: Wherefore it is enacted, that such [justices ³] shall not be made against the form of the said statute; and that the assises, attaints, and certifications be taken before the justices commonly assigned, which should be good men and lawful, having knowledge of the law, and none other, after the form of another statute made in the time of the said [King Edward the First,⁴] and that the oyers and terminers shall not be granted but before justices of the one bench or the other, or the justices errants, and that for great [hurt,] or horrible trespasses, and of the King's special grace, after the form of the statute thereof ordained in time of the said grandfather, and none otherwise.

Item, it is enacted, that no man great nor small, of what condition

STATUTE THE FIFTH.

AT the Parliament summoned at Westminster in the Feast of St. Hilary, the Year of the Reign of our Lord King Edward the Third [after the Conquest,] of England the Five and twentieth, and of France the Twelfth ; our said Lord the King, by the assent of the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and of all the Commonalty of his Realm of England summoned to the Parliament, to the honour of God and Holy Church, and in Amendment of his said Realm, hath ordained and established the Things underwritten.

FIRST, Forasmuch as great and outrageous damage and grievance hath been done to the People by the Takers and Purveyors of Viuals, for the Houses of our Sovereign Lord the King, the Queen, and their Children ; It is accorded and assented in the said Parliament, That the Takers (*) of Corn for the said Houses shall take the same by Measure striked according as it is used through the Land. And that such Corn, Hay, Litter, Bestall and all other Viuals and Things, which shall be taken for the said Houses, shall be [taken'] by the very Value, by the Constable and other good People of the Towns where such Taking shall be made, without that that the Praisers by Menace or Duress shall be driven to set any other Price than their Oath will, and as commonly runneth in the next Markets. And that betwixt the Purveyors and them whose Goods shall be taken in the presence of the Constables and Praisers, Tallies be made incontinently, without that that the People whose Goods shall be taken, shall be drawn or travelled elsewhere, and the same Tallies sealed with the Seals of the Takers of the Things so taken, by which Tallies Gree shall be made to them whose Goods shall be so taken ; and if any Purveyor or Taker for the said Houses, do, in any other Manner, he shall be [maintenant'] arrested by the Town where the Taking shall be made, and brought to the next Gaol ; and if he be thereof attainted, it shall be done of him as of a Thief, if the Quantity of the Goods the same require ; according as in a Statute made in the Time of our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, the Fifth Year of his Reign, and in another Statute made in the Time of the King's Grandfather upon such Takings, is contained more at the full : and that from henceforth in the Comissions of such Takers and Purveyors, the Intent and Pain limited in this Statute shall be contained : and that no Commission be made, but only under the King's great Seal or Privy Seal ; nor that no Man be bound to obey [any such Comissions, other or in what Manner'] than is aforesaid ; and that the same Statute take place in all Points against every Taker and Purveyor of every Manner of Viual in every part of the Realm, of what Condition snever he be.

ITEM, Whereas divers Opinions have been before this Time [in what Case Treason shall be said, and in what not ;] the King, at the Request of the Lords and of the Commons, hath made a Declaration in the Manner as hereafter followeth, that is to say ; When a Man doth compass or imagine the Death of our Lord the King, or of our Lady his [Queen] or of their eldest Son and Heir; or if a Man do violate the King's [Companion,] or the King's eldest Daughter unmarried, or the Wife () the King's eldest Son and Heir; or if a Man do levy War against our Lord the King in his Realm, or be adherent to the King's Enemies in his Realm, giving to them Aid and Comfort in the Realm, or elsewhere, and thereof be [probably] attainted of open Deed by [the People] of their Condition: And if a Man counterfeit the King's Great or Privy Seal, or his Money; and if a Man bring false Money into this Realm, counterfeit to the Money of England, as the Money called Lushburgh, or other, like to the said Money of England, knowing the Money to be false, to merchandise or make Payment in Deceit of our said Lord the King and of his People; and if a Man slay the Chancellor, Treasurer, or the King's Justices of the one Bench or the other, Justices in Eyre, or Justices of Assise, and all other Justices assigned to hear and determine, being in their Places, doing their Offices: And it is to be understood, that in the Cases above rehearsed, [that] ought to be judged Treason which extends to our Lord the King, and his Royal Majesty: And of such Treason the Forfeiture of the Escheats pertaineth to our Sovereign Lord, as well of the Lands and Tenements holden of other, as of himself: And moreover there is another manner of Treason, that is to say, when a Servant slayeth his Master, or a Wife her Husband, or when a Man secular or Religious slayeth his Prelate, to whom he oweith Faith and Obedience; and [of such Treason the Escheats ought to pertain] to every Lord of his own Fee: And because that many other like Cases of Treason may happen in Time to come, which a Man cannot think nor declare at this present Time: It is accorded, That if any other Case, supposed Treason, which is not above specified, doth happen () before any Justices, the Justices shall tarry without any going to Judgement of the Treason, till the [Cause] be shewed [and declared before the King and his Parliament,] whether it ought to be judged Treason or [other] Felony. And if perchance any Man of this Realm ride armed [covertly] or secretly with Men of Arms against any other, to slay him, or rob him, or take him, or retain him till he hath made Fine or Ransom for to have his Deliverance, it is not the Mind of the King nor his Council, that in such Case it shall be judged Treason, but shall be judged Felony or Trespass, according to the Laws of the Land of old Time used, and according as the Case requireth. And if in such Case, or other like, before this Time any Justices have judged Treason, and for that Cause the Lands and Tenements have comen into the King's hands as Forfeite, the chief Lords of the Fee shall have the Escheats of the Tenements holden of them, whether that the same Tenements be in the King's hands, or in others, by Gift or in other Manner; Saving always to our Lord the King the Year, and the Waste, and the Forfeitures of Chatelots, which pertain to him in the Cases above named; and that [the Writs] of Scire facias be granted in such Case against the Land-tenants, without other Original, and without allowing [any Protection] in the said Suit; and that of the Lands which be in the King's hands, Writs be granted to the Sheriffs of the Counties where the Lands be, to deliver them out of the King's hands without Delay.

ITEM, It is accorded, That no Indictor shall be put in Inquests upon Deliverance of the Indictees of Felonies or Trespass, if he be challenged for that same cause by him which is so indicted.

26 Edward III. A.D. 1352. Letter-Book F. fol. ccxv. (Latin.)

" To the venerable and discreet men, the Dean and Chapter of the " Church of St. Paul, in London, Andrew Aubrey, Mayor of the same " city, greeting in the Lord. We do present unto you by these pre" sents our dearly beloved in Christ, Sir William Mason, Priest, to " fill the perpetual Chantry now vacant, with all the rights thereof,
" which has been founded for a fitting Priest in the Church of St.
" Paul, aforesaid, to celebrate Divine Service for the soul of ² John " de Pulteneye, Knight, and the souls of other persons in the will " of him, the same John, named, and the souls of all faithful per" sons deceased ; and to our presentation, by reason of our hold" ing the office of Mayor of the city aforesaid, in virtue of the will " of the said John, belonging ; and we do beg of you, that you will " admit the said John to the Chantry aforesaid, and, as the usage is,
" will canonically institute him in the same, and will deign to do, in " favour of us, the other things which in this behalf unto your " office pertain. In witness whereof, we have caused these our letters " patent, sealed with the Seal of the Mayoralty of the said city, to

Nov. 30. To John de Stourton escheator in Somerset. Order to deliver in Westminster. dower to the said Margaret the advowson of Westcoker church extended at 20*l.* a year.

Dec. 1. To the mayor and sheriffs of London. Order, when required by Westminster. Thomas Tyle the king's butler, to admit Nicholas Symcock to the office of coroner in the city of London, taking of him an oath to behave well so long as he shall be therein; as that office pertains to the said butler, who has made the said Nicholas his substitute, being engaged at the king's command upon divers business in divers parts of the realm. By bill of the butler.

Nov. 22. To John Parker of Olneye escheator in Bedfordshire. Order to cause Westminster. the abbot of Wobourne to have seisin of a messuage, 30 acres of land and 2 acres of meadow in Everesholt held by John Page hanged for felony; as the king has learned by inquisition, taken by the escheator, that the premises have been in his hand a year and a day, that the said John held them of the abbot, and that William de Otteford late escheator had the year and a day and the waste thereof.

Dec. 1. To the mayor and bailiffs of Newcastle upon Tyne. Order to arrest Westminster. and imprison until further order, according to the statutes, all those who shall be found by night or day making confederacies, congregations, unlawful assemblies or other mischief in that town, going armed, bearing arms or leading an armed power to the disturbance of the peace, and others who may be notoriously suspected, and by true men of their bailiwick to make inquisition of the names of such evildoers, their evildoings and those that harbour them, and likewise to arrest and imprison those who shall be indicted concerning the premises; as in the statute published at Winchester in the time of King Edward [I] it is contained that if any strange passengers be found by night in cities, boroughs or towns they shall be by the watch arrested until the morrow, and if suspicion be had of them they shall be delivered to the sheriff's custody, who shall receive them without gainsaying, and if they shall not suffer themselves to be arrested hue and cry shall be raised upon them, and the watch with the whole town and neighbouring towns shall pursue them with hue and cry until taken and delivered to the sheriff; and likewise in the statute published at Norhampton in 2 Edward III it is contained that, with particular exceptions therein specified, no man of whatsoever estate or condition shall go with armed force, lead any force to the disturbance of the peace, ride or go armed by day or night in fairs, markets or in presence of justices or other the king's ministers or elsewhere under pain of losing their arms and of imprisonment; and in the statute published at Westminster in 5 Edward III it is contained that if suspicion of evildoing by day or night be had against any called 'roberdesmen,' 'wastours' and 'draughlaeches,' they shall be straightway arrested and delivered to the custody of constables of towns, of the bailiffs of liberties if arrested within liberties, and of the sheriffs if without, to be imprisoned until the coming of justices for gaol delivery; and now the king is informed that great number of evildoers and disturbers of the peace, fearing not the said statutes and pains, have heretofore made and cease [not] daily to make unlawful assemblies etc. by night and day in that town and neighbouring places, have gone and go armed

May 3. To John Aston escheator in Devon. Order to remove the king's hand and meddle no further with the moiety of a messuage with a cellar under ground in the city of Exeter, and five ferlings 4 acres of land in Toppesham and at la Forde, delivering up any issues thereof taken; as the king has learned by inquisition, taken by the escheator, that Robert Persoun at his death held no lands in chief by reason whereof the wardship of his land and heir ought to pertain to the king, but held the said moiety and cellar of the king in free burgage, and the said land of others than the king.

May 10. To the collectors in the port of Southampton of the custom upon wool, hides and woodfells for the time being. Order to pay to Garcins Arnaud of Salyns esquire of the lordship of Aquitaine 20*l.* a year which on 8 July 3 Richard II for good service the king granted him of the said custom from Easter then last for his life or until the king should take other order for his estate, and the arrears since Easter aforesaid.

May 15.
Kennington

To the treasurer and the chamberlains. Order by assent and advice of the council to cause 591L 1Ls. of the treasury to be paid of the king's gift to John Samoun of Notyngham; as by his petition he has shewn the king that on 8 September last he sold at that price 84½ sacks of wool to Nicholas Brenmore knight (now deceased), who by reason of a judgment against him rendered in parliament forfeited all his goods and chattels to the king, under a condition that the purchaser should give security to pay that sum at Michaelmas then next before taking the wool over sea for sale, provided that if such security were not fully found it should then be lawful for the said John to make his advantage of the wool, that the said Nicholas, not observing those conditions, caused it to be taken over for sale to the staple of Middelburgh, and that although the said John after in that staple claimed property in the wool, and by John de Byngham his attorney caused it to be there arrested, with his assent and with assent of John Frosshe and Thomas Ally of London upon pretence of certain sums due to them from the said Nicholas, licence of the court of the staple being first obtained, the wool was there sold lest it should be damaged, and by command of the king the money thereof arising was arrested by Thomas atte Mille his serjeant at arms, wherefore a plea moyed in the king's court thereupon was quashed, and the petitioner may get no recovery thereof. Proviso that answer be made at the exchequer by William de Brampton governor of the said staple and other the ministers thereof for any money received at Middelburgh for the wool which is there under arrest. Of Corn-dealers.

Also, as to corn-dealers who bring corn unto the City for sale—that no one shall sell by show or by sample. But they shall come to certain places in the City established with their carts laden, and with their horses having the loads upon them, without selling anything, and without getting rid of anything, until [they reach] the established places; that is to say, within the Gate of Neugate, before the Friars Minors [there, and] at Graschirche; and this, without putting anything into house or into hiding-place, whether the same arrive by night or by day. And that no corn shall be sold until the hour of ¹Prime rung at Saint Paul's, under penalty of forfeiting such corn. And that all vessels, scouts, and boats, of whatever kind they may be, that bring corn to sell, as well at Billyngesgate as elsewhere on the Thames, shall remain upon common sale after they have arrived, without selling anything in gross for one whole day; that so the common people may buy for their sustenance what they shall need; and this under heavy forfeiture.

Of the same.

And whereas some buyers and brokers of corn do buy corn in the City of country folks who bring it to the City to sell, and give, on the bargain being made, a penny or halfpenny by way of earnest; and tell the peasants to take the corn to their house, and that there they shall receive their pay.—And when they come there and think to have their payment directly, the buyer says that his wife at his house has gone out, and has taken the key of the room, so that he cannot get at his money; ^{Fol. 198 B.} but that the other must go away, and come again soon and receive his pay. And when he comes back a second time, then the buyer is not to be found; or else, if he is found, he feigns something else, by reason whereof the poor men cannot have their pay. And sometimes, while the poor men are waiting for their pay, the buyer causes the corn to be ²wetted; and then, when they come to ask for their pay, which was agreed upon, [they are told] to wait until such a day as the buyer shall choose to name, or else to take off a part of the price; which if they will not do, they may take their corn and carry it away; a thing which they

USE OF ARMS FORBIDDEN.

That no one go armed.

Item, that no one, of whatever condition he be, go armed in the said city or in the suburbs, or carry arms, by day or by night, except the vadelets of the great lords of the land, carrying the swords of their masters in their presence, and the serjeants-at-arms of his lordship the King, of my lady the Queen, the ¹Prince, and the other children of his lordship the King, and the officers of the City, and such persons as shall come in their company in aid of them, at their command, for saving and maintaining the said peace; under the penalty aforesaid, and the loss of their arms and armour.

Of Hostlers.

Item, that every hosteler and herbergeour cause warning to be given unto his guests that they leave their arms in their hostels where they shall be harboured; and if they shall not do so, and any one shall be found carrying arms contrary to the said proclamation, through default of warning by his host, such host is to be punished by imprisonment and by fine, at the discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen.

Of the power of arresting Felons and Misdoers.

Item, that every man of standing in the said city, Alderman and commoner, who is of good repute, have power, in the absence of the officers, to arrest felons and misdoers, and to bring them unto the houses of the Sheriffs, that so due punishment may be inflicted upon such misdoers.

That no one draw sword or knife.

Item, the better to keep the said peace, and that each person may fear the more to break the said peace, it is ordained that no person draw sword, or knife, or other arm; [and in such case], provided he do not strike, he is to pay unto the City half a mark, or remain in the prison of Newgate fifteen days. And if he draw blood of any one, he is to pay unto the City twenty shillings, or remain in prison forty days.

CHAPTER CCXLVI.

AN ACT TO PREVENT THE KILLING OF DEER OUT OF SEASON, AND AGAINST CARRYING OF GUNS OR HUNTING BY PERSONS NOT QUALIFIED.

[Section I.] Be it enacted by Sir William Keith, Baronet, Governor of the Province of Pennsylvania, &c., by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of the said Province in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That if any person or persons, after the publication hereof, shall kill or destroy any buck, doe, fawn, or any other sort of deer whatsoever, at any other time or season except only betwixt the first day of July and first day of January, he shall forfeit and pay for every such buck, doe, fawn, or other deer so killed or destroyed as aforesaid, the sum of twenty shillings; one-half thereof to the poor of the township where the offense is committed, and the other half to him who shall inform or sue for the same, before any justice of the peace of this province, who is hereby empowered and authorized to hear and determine the same, and to convict the offender, by the oath or affirmation of one or more witnesses.

Provided, That such conviction be made within two months after such offense is committed.

And for the better conviction of offenders against this act:

[Section II.] Be it enacted, That every person in whose custody shall be found, or who shall expose to sale any green deer skins, fresh venison, or deer's flesh, at any other time of the year than what is before excepted, and shall be convicted thereof as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of the said offense. And that the same green deer skins, fresh venison or deer's flesh so found as aforesaid shall be held to be good evidence in the cases aforesaid.

Provided always, That nothing contained in this act shall be deemed or construed to extend to any free native Indians carrying guns, hunting, killing, and having in their custody any skins or deer's flesh for their own use, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas divers abuses, damages and inconveniences have arose by persons carrying guns and presuming to hunt on other people's lands, for remedy whereof for the future:

[Section III.] Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall presume, at any time after the sixteenth day of November, in this present year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, to carry any gun or hunt on the improved or inclosed lands of any plantation other than his own, unless he have license or permission from the owner of such lands or plantation, and shall be thereof convicted, either upon view of any justice of the peace within this province, or by the oath or affirmation of any one or more witnesses, before any justice of the peace, he shall for every such offense forfeit the sum of ten shillings. And if any person whatsoever, who is not owner of fifty acres of land and otherwise qualified in the same manner as persons are or ought to be by the laws of this province for electing of members to serve in assembly, shall, at any time after the said sixteenth day of November, carry any gun, or hunt in the woods or uninclosed lands, without license or permission obtained from the owner or owners of such lands, and shall be thereof convicted in manner aforesaid, such offender shall forfeit and pay the sum of five shillings for every such offense.

[Section IV.] And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person whatsoever shall presume to shoot at or kill with a firearm any pigeon, dove, partridge, or other fowl in the open streets of the city of Philadelphia, or in the gardens, orchards and inclosures adjoining upon and belonging to any of the dwelling houses within the limits of the said city, upon the forfeiture of five shillings for every such offense, to be convicted in manner aforesaid.

All which penalties and forfeitures shall go, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the township where such offense is committed. But if convicted upon view of a justice of the peace, the whole forfeiture shall be to the use of the poor. And if the offender refuse to pay, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of the justice before whom such offender shall be convicted, returning the overplus, if any be, the charge of distraining being first deducted. And for want of such distress he shall be committed to prison, where the forfeiture is twenty shillings, for the space of ten days; and, where the forfeiture is ten shillings, for the space of five days; and, if the forfeiture is five shillings, for the space of two days, without bail or mainprise.

Passed August 26, 1721. Apparently never considered by the Crown, but allowed to become a law by lapse of time in accordance with the proprietary charter. See Appendix IV, Section II, and Hill's letter and Fane's opinion in Appendix V, Section I, and

CHAPTER CCXLVII.

AN ACT FOR THE WELL TANNING AND CURRYING OF LEATHER, AND REGULATING OF CORDWAINERS, AND OTHER ARTIFICERS, USING AND OCCUPYING LEATHER WITHIN THIS PROVINCE.

Whereas very great abuses have been committed by tanners, cutters and other persons, using and working of leather within this government, and the prices of leather become very exorbitant and burdensome to the people of this province: To the intent therefore that a reasonable and indifferent course for the true and well tanning, currying and working of leather, may be from henceforth established and appointed, and yet the persons using the several crafts and mysteries aforesaid may not be more strictly bound or limited than the necessary regard of the welfare and general commodity of all His Majesty's subjects within the said province requireth:

[Section I.] Be it enacted by Sir William Keith, Baronet, Governor of the Province of Pennsylvania, &c., by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of the said Province in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth day of November next, in this present year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, if any person or persons using, or which shall use, the mystery or faculty of tanning, or any person or persons importing, or who shall import, any leather into this province, shall at any time or times hereafter offer or put to sale any kind of leather which shall be insufficiently and not thoroughly tanned, so that the same, by the triers of leather lawfully appointed by virtue of this present act, for the time being, shall be found to be insufficiently not thoroughly tanned, that then all and every such person and persons so offending shall forfeit such leather, as shall be found insufficiently and not thoroughly tanned, unless the party importing the same will give

C H A P. XXXV.

An ACT to prevent Killing of Deer out of Season, and against Carrying of Guns and Hunting by Persons not Qualified.

Any Person killing Deer in the Time by this Act disallowed, to forfeit 30s. &c.

Sec't. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Governor, Council and General Assembly, AND IT IS HEREBY ENACTED by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, after the Publication hereof, shall kill or destroy any wild Buck, Doe or Fawn, or any other Sort of Deer whatsoever, at any Time in the Months of January, February, March, April, May or June, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Thirty Shillings, for every such Buck, Doe or Fawn, or other Deer, so killed or destroyed as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; one half thereof to the Poor of the Township or Precinct where the Offence is committed, and the other half to him who shall Inform or Sue for the same before any Justice of the Peace of this Province, who is hereby empowered and authorized to hear and determine the same, and to convict the Offender by the Oath or Affirmation of one or more Witness. Provided That ~~such~~ Conviction be made within two Months after the Offence committed.

Sale of green Skins to amount to a Conviction, &c.

2. AND for the better Convicting of Offenders against this Act, BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person in whose Custody shall be found, or who shall expose to Sale, any green Deer Skins, fresh Venison or Deer's Flesh, at any Time in any of the Months of January, February, March, April, May or June, aforesaid, and shall be convicted thereof, as aforesaid, shall be deemed Guilty of the said Offence.

Not to extend to hinder killing them in Corn Fields, or by Indians

3. PROVIDED ALWAYS, That nothing contained in this Act, shall be deemed or construed to hinder any Person from killing any kind of Deer, within his Fields where Corn is growing, at any Time in the Month of January, nor to extend to any Free Native Indians carrying Guns, hunting, killing or having in their Custody any Skins or Deer's Flesh for their own Use; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

4. And whereas divers abuses have been committed, and great Damages and Inconveniences arisen by Persons carrying of Guns and presuming to hunt on other Peoples Land; for Remedy whereof for the future, BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall presume, at any Time after the Publication hereof, to carry any Gun, or hunt on the improved or inclosed Lands in any Plantation, other than his own, unless he have Licence or Permission from the Owner of such Lands or Plantation, and shall be thereof convicted, either upon the View of any Justice of the Peace within this Province, or by the Oath or Affirmation of any one or more Witnesses, before any Justice of the Peace, he shall, for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifteen Shillings, with Costs attending such Conviction. And if any Person whatsoever, who is not Owner of one Hundred Acres of Land, or otherwise qualified, in the same Manner as Persons are or ought to be for electing Representatives to serve in General Assembly, shall at any Time after the Publication hereof, carry any Gun, or hunt in the Woods or uninclosed Lands, without Licence or Permission obtained from the Owner or Owners of such Lands, and shall be thereof convicted, in Manner aforesaid, such Offender shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Shillings, with Costs as aforesaid, for every such Offence. All which Penalties and Forfeitures shall go one Moiety to the Informer, and the other to the Poor of the Township or Precinct where such Offence is committed; but if convicted upon View of a Justice of the Peace, the whole Forfeiture shall be to the Use of the Poor. And if the Offender refuse to pay the same, with Costs, as aforesaid, shall be levied on by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Justice before whom such Offender shall be convicted, returning the over-plus, if any be, the Charge of Distressing being first deducted. And for want of Effects whereon to make such Distress, every Person so Offending, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be committed to Prison, when the Forfeiture is Thirty Shillings, for the Space of Fifteen Days; and when the Forfeiture is Fifteen Shillings, for the Space of Eight Days; and when the Forfeiture is Ten Shillings, for the Space of Five Days, without Bail or Mainprize.

No Person to carry a Gun or Hunt on Land inclosed but by assent of Owners &c.

Forfeitures how to be applied, and how to be levied &c.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That every Justice of the Peace, before whom any Person or Persons is convicted of having committed any of the Offences in and by this Act prohibited, is hereby directed and required to issue his Warrants for the bringing such Offender and manner that debts under twenty pounds are directed to be recovered by the Act for the trial of small and mean causes.

Proviso as to Charleston.

II. Provided, and be it further enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to extend to persons living within the parish of St. Philip's, Charlestown; but in lieu thereof, the whole watch of Charlestown, aforesaid, shall be obliged to perform watch and ward under arms, during divine service, in the same manner as a part only of the said watch are now by law enjoined to do, and for which a pay or additional allowance of ten pounds per annum shall be given to every man of the said watch, to be paid by an assessment on the inhabitants of Charlestown, according to the method already laid down for the payment of the said watch.

Duty of church wardens, deacons, &c.

III. And to the intent that this Act may be more duly carried into execution, by which the inhabitants of this Province may be the better secured and provided against the insurrections and other wicked attempts of negroes and other slaves, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the church-warden and church-wardens of each respective parish, and the deacon or deacons, and elder or elders, or either of them, resorting to other places of public worship in this Province, (excepting the places of public worship within the parish of St. Philip's, Charlestown,) who shall be at any such church, or other place of public worship, as aforesaid, where any person liable to bear arms, as aforesaid, shall come and resort without his gun or pair of horse pistols and ammunition, as aforesaid, and such church-warden or church-wardens, deacon or deacons, elder or elders, who shall wilfully neglect, after having notice of the offence, to inform against such person so offending against this Act, in order to recover the penalty, as aforesaid, every such church-warden or church-wardens, deacon or deacons, elder or elders, who shall happen to be at such church or other place of divine worship as aforesaid, when such offence against this Act shall be committed, and who shall wilfully neglect, after having notice of the offence, to inform as aforesaid, within twenty days next after such offence committed, shall forfeit and pay, for every such neglect, to any person who will inform for the same within five days next after the expiration of the said twenty days, the sum of twenty shillings, current money of the Province aforesaid, for every person so offending as aforesaid, to be recovered as aforesaid.

Penalty for neglect.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons, as aforesaid, liable to bear arms, as aforesaid, being at such church or other place of divine worship, as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect, on demand of the said church-warden or church-wardens, deacon or deacons, elder or elders, respectively, (or in case none such shall be present, then on demand of any commissioned officer of the militia in this Province,) to produce and shew his gun or pair of horse pistols and ammunition, required so to be brought with such person and persons, as aforesaid, to the intent it may be known whether the same are fit for immediate use and service, every such person so refusing or neglecting to produce and shew the same, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of twenty shillings, current money, to be recovered, paid and applied in the same way and manner, and to the same uses, as the first forfeiture in this Act mentioned is directed to be recovered, paid and applied.

V. And whereas, an Act of the General Assembly of this Province, entitled "An Act for the better ordering and governing negroes and other slaves in this Province," which hath been found to be a wholesome and beneficial law, is near expiring; Be it therefore enacted by the authority

AN ACT FOR GIVING FREEDOM TO A NEGRO MAN NAMED ARRAH, No. 754.
LATE A SLAVE BELONGING TO MR. HUGH CARTWRIGHT; AND TO CONFIRM THE FREEDOM OF ALL NEGROES AND OTHERS WHO HAVE BEEN OR SHALL BE SLAVES TO ANY OF THE INHABITANTS OF THIS PROVINCE, THAT ALREADY HAVE, OR SHALL HEREAFTER, HAVING BEEN TAKEN, MAKE THEIR ESCAPE FROM HIS MAJESTY'S ENEMIES, AND RETURN TO THIS PROVINCE.

WHEREAS, a negro man named Arrah, late a slave, belonging to Mr. Hugh Cartwright, of this Province, hath, by his humble petition to the General Assembly, set forth, that on the thirteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-five, he, the said Arrah, was taken prisoner by a French privateer sloop, of Cape Roman, in a schooner belonging to the said Hugh Cartwright; and that great encouragement was offered to be given him by the enemy if he would join with them against the English, and assist them as a pilot for the Carolina coast, but he refusing to accept their offer, was sold as a slave to a French merchant at Porto Rico, from whence he found means to make his escape, and returned to this Province; and humbly praying that the premises being considered, such relief might be granted to the petitioner as should seem most meet: And forasmuch as it is doubtful whether the property in the said negro man Arrah, was entirely altered by his being taken and sold as a slave by the enemy, at Porto Rico aforesaid; and whereas, his returning to this Province was his own act, out of fidelity to the English: To the intent, therefore, that as well the said negro man Arrah, as all other negroes, and others, who have been or shall be slaves to any of the inhabitants of this Province, and have made or shall make their escape from his Majesty's enemies after being taken by them, may not be molested after their return to this Province—we humbly pray your most sacred Majesty that it may be enacted,

I. And be it enacted, by his Excellency James Glen, Esquire, Governor-in-chief and Captain-general, in and over his Majesty's Province of South Carolina, by and with the advice and consent of his Majesty's

No Person to carry a Gun on Lands not his own, except, &c.

Penalty.

*Sect. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Governor, Council and General Assembly of this Colony of New-Jersey, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall presume, at any Time after the Publication hereof, to carry any Gun on any Lands not his own, and for which the Owner pays Taxes, or is in his lawful Possession, unless he hath License or Permission in Writing from the Owner or Owners or legal Possessor, every such Person so offending, and convicted thereof, either upon the View of any Justice of the Peace within this Colony, or by the Oath or Affirmation of one or more Witnesses, before any Justice of the Peace of either of the Counties, Cities or Towns-corporate of this Colony, in which the Offender or Offenders may be taken or reside, he, she or they, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to the Owner of the Soil, or his Tenant in Possession, the Sum of Forty Shillings, with Costs of Suit ; which Forfeiture shall and may be sued for and recovered by the Owner of the Soil, or Tenant in Possession, before any Justice of the Peace in this Colony, for the Use of such Owner or Tenant in Possession.*

No Person to drive Deer or other Game, except, &c.

Penalty.

*2. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall presume, at any Time after the Publication of this Act, to hunt or watch for Deer with a Gun, or set in any Dog or Dogs to drive Deer, or any other Game, on any Lands not his own, and for which the Owner or Possessor pays Taxes, or is in his lawful Possession, unless he hath License or Permission in Writing from such Owner or Owners or legal Possessor ; every such Person so offending, and being convicted thereof in Manner aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to the Owner of the Soil, or Tenant in Possession, the Sum of Forty Shillings, with Costs of Suit ; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to prevent any Person carrying a Gun upon the King's Highway in this Colony.*

Penalty on Non-Residents.

*3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Person or Persons offending against this Act be Non-Residents of this Colony, he or they shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence Five Pounds, and shall forfeit his or their Gun or Guns to any Person or Persons who shall inform and prosecute the same to Effect, before any Justice of the Peace in any County of this Colony, wherein the Offender or Offenders may be taken or apprehended.*

Penalty for killing, &c. Deer out of Season.

*4. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall kill, destroy, hunt or take any Doe, Buck, Fawn, or any Sort of Deer whatsoever, at any other Time or Season, except only between the first Day of September and the first Day of January yearly and every Year, he, she or they so offending, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings for each and every Offence ; to be sued for, recovered and applied as hereafter is directed.*

What shall be Evidence of such Killing, &c.

5. AND, for the better and more effectual convicting of Offenders against this Act, BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That any and every Person or Persons in whose Custody shall be found, or who shall shall expose to Sale, any green Deerskins, or fresh Venison killed at any Time after the first Day of January, and before the first Day of September aforesaid, and shall be thereof convicted by the Oath or Affirmation of one or more credible Witnesses, shall be deemed guilty of offending against this Act, and be subjected to the Penalties of killing Deer out of Season.

6. AND WHEREAS great Numbers of idle and disorderly Persons make a Practice of hunting on the waste and unimproved Lands in this Colony, whereby their Families are neglected, and the Publick is prejudiced by the Loss of their Labour, BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of January next, no Person or Persons whatsoever (except such Persons as are by the Laws of this Colony qualified to vote for Representatives in General Assembly, in Right of their Freeholds, and their Sons being of the Age of eighteen Years or upwards, and living with their Parent or Parents, or being Freeholders) shall, on any Pretence whatever, hunt on the waste and unimproved Lands in this Colony ; and if any Person or Persons, not qualified as aforesaid, shall presume to hunt as aforesaid, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence; the Sum of Twenty Shillings ; to be recovered by Action of Debt, with Costs, by any Person who shall sue for the same ; to be applied one Half to the Prosecutor, and the other Half to the Use of the Poor of the Township or Precinct where the Fact was committed.

Who may hunt on unimproved Lands.

Penalty on Offenders.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons within this Colony shall set any Trap or other Device whatsoever, larger than what is usually and commonly set for Foxes and Muskrats, such Person, setting such Trap or other Device, shall pay the Sum of Five Pounds, and forfeit the Trap or other Device, shall suffer three Months Imprisonment, and shall also be liable to make good all Damages any Person shall sustain by setting such Trap or other Device, and the Owner of such Trap or other Device, or Person to whom it was lent, shall be esteemed the Setter thereof, unless it shall be proved, on Oath or Affirmation, what other Person set the same, or that such Trap or other Device was lost by said Owner or Person to whom it was lent, and absolutely out of his Power ; and if the Setter of the Trap or other Device be a Slave, and it be his own voluntary A&T, he shall (unless the Master or Mistress shall pay the Fine) in Lieu of such Fine, be publicly whipped with thirty Lashes, and committed till the Costs are paid ; and that the said Trap or other Device shall be broken and destroyed in the View and Presence of the Justice of the Peace before whom they are brought : And if any Person or Persons shall have Possession of, or there shall be found in his or their House, any Trap or Traps, Device or Devices whatsoever, for taking of Deer, such Person or Persons shall be subjected to the same Penalty as if he or they were convicted of setting such Trap or Traps, or other Device.

Penalty on a Slave setting
such Trap,
&c.

Penalty on keeping such Trap, &c.

8. AND, for encouraging the Destruction of such Traps and Devices, BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall seize any Trap or other Device for the taking Deer, and shall carry such Trap or other Device to any Magistrate of the County where such Trap or Device was seized, such Person shall be entitled to

Reward for seizing a Trap, &c.

an Order from the said Magistrate to the Collector of such County, to pay him the Sum of Ten Shillings, out of any Money in his Hands raised for the Use of the County; which Sums shall be allowed to such Collector on the Settlement of his Accounts.

9. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That every Smith or other Artificer, who shall hereafter make or mend any such Trap or other Device aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings; and the Person carrying such Trap or other Device to the Artificer aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings. And every Person who shall bring into this Colony any such Trap or Device as aforesaid shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings. And if the Person who shall carry the same to the Smith or Artificer shall be so poor as that he shall not be able to pay the Forfeiture aforesaid, he shall be committed to the common Gaol, until he shall prove who is Owner of such Trap or Device, or who delivered the same to him; and in such Case the Forfeiture aforesaid shall be levied on the Goods, or in Failure of Goods, on the Body of the Owner of such Trap or Device, or the Person who delivered the same to the Pauper, and the Trap or Device shall be forfeited and destroyed.

10. AND WHEREAS a most dangerous Method of setting Guns has too much prevailed in this Province, BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons within this Colony shall presume to set any loaded Gun in such Manner as that the same shall be intended to go off or discharge itself, or be discharged by any String, Rope, or other Contrivance, such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Six Pounds; and on Non-payment thereof shall be committed to the common Gaol of the County for six Months,

11. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fines and Forfeitures in this Act expressed, and not particularly appropriated, shall be paid, one Half to the Prosecutor, and the other Half to and for the Use of the Poor of the Town, Precinct or District, where the Offence is committed; and that the Execution of this Act, and every Part thereof, shall be within the Cognizance and Jurisdiction of any one Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, without any Reference to the Act for Trial of small Causes in this Colony.

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing in this Law shall be construed to extend to restrain the Owners of Parks, or of tame Deer, from killing, hunting or driving their own Deer.

13. AND BE IT ALSO ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate, within this Province, shall have Information of any Persons offending against this Act, in killing Deer out of Season, setting and making Traps, Non-Residents killing Deer, and Persons setting of Guns, and shall not prosecute the same to Effect within two Months after such Information, he shall forfeit and pay the Sum or Sums to which the Offender against this Act would have been liable.

14. AND

14. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices at every Quarter-Sessions of the Peace shall cause this Act to be publiclyk read; and give in Charge to the Grand-Jury to particularly inquire and present all Persons for killing Deer out of Season, setting or making Traps, and all Non-Residents killing, destroying, hunting and taking any Sort of Deer, and all Persons setting of Guns; and, upon Conviction for either of the said Offences, the said Justices shall set and impose the Fines and Penalties herein before-mentioned, with Costs of Suit.

15. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, whether the Accused or Accuser, Plaintiff or Defendant, shall think themselves aggrieved by any of the Judgments given by the said Justices or other Magistrates, for any Suit commenced by Virtue of this Act; then it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons to appeal, on giving sufficient Security for the Forfeitures and Costs, to the next Court of General Quarter-Sessions, held for such County where such Judgment shall be given; which Court is hereby empowered to hear and determine all and every such Appeal or Appeals.

16. AND BE IT ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, within this Colony, shall, after the Publication of this Act, watch with a Gun, on any uninclosed Land within two Hundred Yards of any Road or Path, in the Night Time, whether the said Road is laid out by Law or not, or shall stand or station him or themselves upon or within two Hundred Yards of any Road as aforesaid, for shooting at Deer driven by Dogs, he or they so offending, shall, on Conviction, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for every such Offence; to be recovered by Action of Debt, or Presentment of the Grand-Jury as aforesaid, and pay all Damages.

17. PROVIDED ALWAYS, That the sixth Section of this Act shall not be construed to affect any Native Indian; and that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the Inhabitants of Effex, Bergen, Morris and Suffex, from making, having in their Houses, or setting Traps of five Pounds Weight or more for Bears, Wolves, Foxes, or any other wild Beasts, Deer only excepted.

18. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED by the Authority aforesaid, That all former Laws made in this Colony for the Preservation of Deer and other Game, and to prevent trespassing with Guns, and regulating the Size of Traps, shall be, and they are hereby repealed.

C H A P. DXLI.

*An ACT for the more effectual maintaining, and keeping above the Flow of the Tide, that Part of the Road or Causeway between the Toll-Bridge over Newton Creek and the fast Land of Keziah Tonkin.

Passed Dec. 21, 1771.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Thomas Attmore, Isaac Burrough, Benjamin Thackray, Jacob Stokes, Hannah Cooper, Keziah Tonkin, Elizabeth Thackray and Job Haines, Owners and Proprietors of the Meadows lying on the easterly Side of Newton Creek, in the County of Gloucester, have, by their Petition, set forth, That they have suffered, and are daily exposed to very considerable Damage by Reason of the Causeway and Road between the Toll-Bridge, called William Gerrard's, and the fast Land of Keziah Tonkin, not being raised above the Flowing of the Tides;

Possessors of the Toll-Bridge neglecting three Months.

Sect. 1. BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor, Council and General Assembly, That if the Owner or Owners, Possessor or Possessors, of the Toll-Bridge erected over Newton Creek, shall neglect or refuse, for three Months after Publication hereof, to repair and raise, above the Flowing of the Tides, such Part of the Causeway and Road, leading from the Town of Gloucester to the Coopers Ferries, as lays on the East Side of Newton Creek aforesaid, from the End of said Toll-Bridge to the fast Land of Keziah Tonkin; then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the Managers, or the Survivors of them already appointed, or that shall be hereafter appointed, in Pursuance of an Act passed in the third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled, An ACT to enable the Owners and Possessors of the Meadows lying on a Branch of Newton Creek, in the County of Gloucester, commonly called the Back Creek, to erect and maintain a Bank, Dam, and other Waterworks across the said Creek, in order to prevent the Tide from overflowing the same, and to keep the former Watercourse of said Creek open and clear,† to repair, amend and raise the said Causeway and Road, from the Bridge aforesaid, Managers of Back Creek Meadows to repair and raise the Causeway.

* This Act, though strictly private, being of a very publick Import, is admitted in this Collection.

Constitution of Delaware; 1776 (1)

Art 1	Art 2	Art 3	Art 4	Art 5	Art 6	Art 7	Art 8	Art 9	Art 10
Art 11	Art 12	Art 13	Art 14	Art 15	Art 16	Art 17	Art 18	Art 19	Art 20
Art 21	Art 22	Art 23	Art 24	Art 25	Art 26	Art 27	Art 28	Art 29	Art 30

The Constitution, or System of Government, agreed to and resolved upon by the Representatives in full Convention of the Delaware State, formerly styled "The Government of the Counties of New Castle, Kent, and Sussex, upon Delaware," the said Representatives being chosen by the Freemen of the said State for that express Purpose.

ARTICLE 1. The government of the counties of New- Castle, Kent and Sussex, upon Delaware, shall hereafter in all public and other writings be called The Delaware State.

ART. 2. The Legislature shall be formed of two distinct branches; they shall meet once or oftener in every year, and shall be called, " The General Assembly of Delaware."

ART. 3. One of the branches of- the Legislature shall be called, " The House of Assembly," and shall consist of seven Representatives to be chosen for each county annually of such persons as are freeholders of the same.

ART. 4.4 The other branch shall be called " The council," and consist of nine members; three to be chosen for each county at the time of the first election of the assembly, who shall be freeholders of the county for which they are chosen, and be upwards of twenty-five years of age. At the end of one year after the general election, the councillor who had the smallest number of votes in each county shall be displaced, and the vacancies thereby occasioned supplied by the freemen of each county choosing the same or another person at a new election in manner aforesaid. At the end of two years after the first general election, the councillor who stood second in number of votes in each county shall be displaced, and the vacancies thereby occasioned supplied by a new election in manner aforesaid. And at the end of three years from the first general election, the councillor who had the greatest number of votes in each county shall be displaced, and the vacancies thereby occasioned supplied by a new election in manner aforesaid. And this rotation of a councillor being displaced at the end of three years in each county, and his office supplied by a new choice, shall be continued afterwards in due order annually forever, whereby, after the first general election, a councillor will remain in trust for three years from the time of his being elected, and a councillor will be displaced, and the same or another chosen in each county at every election.

ART. 5. The right of suffrage in the election of members for both houses shall remain as exercised by law at present; and each house shall choose its own speaker, appoint its own officers, judge of the qualifications and elections of its own members, settle its own rules of proceedings, and direct writs of election for supplying intermediate vacancies. They may also severally expel any of their own members for misbehavior, but not a second time in the same sessions for the same offence, if reelected; and they shall have all other powers necessary for the legislature of a free and independent State.

ART. 6. All money-bills for the support of government shall originate in the house of assembly, and may be altered, amended, or rejected by the legislative council. All other bills and ordinances may take rise in the house of assembly or legislative council, and may be altered, amended, or rejected by either.

ART. 7. A president or chief magistrate shall be chosen by joint ballot of both houses' to be taken in the house of assembly, and the box examined by the speakers of each house in the presence of the other members, and in case the numbers for the two highest in votes should be equal, then the speaker of the council shall have an additional casting voice, and the appointment of the person who has the majority of votes shall be entered at large on the minutes and journals of each house, and a copy thereof on parchment, certified and signed by the speakers respectively, and sealed with the great seal of the State, which they are hereby authorized to affix, shall be delivered to the person so chosen president, who shall continue in that office three years, and until the sitting of the next general assembly and no longer, nor be eligible until the expiration of three years after he shall have been out of that office. An adequate but moderate salary shall be settled on him during his continuance in office. He may draw for such sums of money as shall be appropriated by the general assembly, and be accountable to them for the same; he may, by and with the advice of the privy council, lay embargos or prohibit the exportation of any commodity for any time not exceeding thirty days in the recess of the general assembly; he shall have the power of granting pardons or reprieves, except where the prosecution shall be carried on by the house of assembly, or the law shall otherwise direct, in which cases no pardon or reprieve shall be granted, but by a resolve of the house of assembly, and may exercise all the other executive powers of government limited and restrained as by this constitution is mentioned, and according to the laws of the State. And on his death, inability, or absence from the State, the speaker of the legislative council for the time being shall be vice-president, and in case of his death, inability, or absence from the State, the speaker of the house of assembly shall have the powers of a president, until a new nomination is made by the general assembly.

ART. 8. A privy council, consisting of four members, shall be chosen by ballot, two by the legislative council and two by the house of assembly: Provided, That no regular officer of the army or navy in the service and pay of the continent, or of this, or of any other State, shall be eligible; and a member of the legislative council or of the house of assembly being chosen of the privy council, and accepting thereof, shall thereby lose his seat. Three members shall be a quorum, and their advice and proceedings shall be entered of record, and signed by the members present, (to any part of which any member may enter his dissent,) to be laid before the general assembly when called for by them. Two members shall be removed by ballot, one by the legislative council and one by the house of assembly, at the end of two years, and those who remain the next year after, who shall severally be ineligible for the three next years. The vacancies, as well as those occasioned by death or incapacity, shall be supplied by new elections in the same manner; and this rotation of a privy councillor shall be continued afterwards in due order annually forever. The president may by summons convene the privy council at any time when the public exigencies may require, and at such place as he shall think most convenient, when and where they are to attend accordingly.

ART. 9. The president, with the advice and consent of the privy council, may embody the militia, and act as captain-general and commander-in-chief of them, and the other military force of this State, under the laws of the same.

ART. 10. Either house of the General assembly may adjourn themselves respectively. The president shall not prorogue, adjourn, or dissolve the general assembly, but he may, with the advice of the privy council, or on the application of a majority of either house, call them before the time they shall stand adjourned; and the two houses shall always sit at the same time and place, for which purpose immediately after every adjournment the speaker of the house of assembly shall give notice to the speaker of the other house of the time to which the house of assembly stands adjourned.

ART. 11. The Delegates for Delaware to the Congress of the United States of America shall be chosen annually, or superseded in the mean time, by joint ballot of both houses in the general assembly.

ART. 12. The president and general assembly shall by joint ballot appoint three justices of the supreme court for the State, one of whom shall be chief justice, and a judge of admiralty, and also four justices of the courts of common pleas and orphans' courts for each county, one of whom in each court shall be styled "chief justice," (and in case of division on the Ballot the president shall have an additional casting voice,) to be commissioned by the president under the great seal, who shall continue in office during good behavior; and during the time the justices of the said supreme court and courts of common pleas remain in office, they shall hold none other except in the militia. Any one of the justices of either of said courts shall have power, in case of the noncoming of his brethren, to open and adjourn the court. An adequate fixed but moderate salary shall be settled on them during their continuance in office. The president and privy council shall appoint the secretary, the attorney-general, registers for the probate of wills and granting letters of administration, registers in chancery, clerks of the courts of common pleas and orphans' courts, and clerks of the peace, who shall be commissioned as aforesaid, and remain in office during five years, if they behave themselves well; during which time the said registers in chancery and clerks shall not be justices of either of the said courts of which they are officers, but they shall have authority to sign all writs by them issued, and take recognizances of bail. The justices of the peace shall be nominated by the house of assembly; that is to say, they shall name twenty-four persons for each county, of whom the president, with the approbation of the privy council, shall appoint twelve, who shall be commissioned as aforesaid, and continue in office during seven years, if they behave themselves well; and in case of vacancies, or if the legislature shall think proper to increase the number, they shall be nominated and appointed in like manner. The members of the legislative and privy councils shall be justices of the peace for the whole State, during their continuance in trust; and the justices of the courts of common pleas shall be conservators of the peace in their respective counties.

ART. 13. The justices of the courts of common pleas and orphans courts shall have the power of holding inferior courts of chancery, as heretofore, unless the legislature shall otherwise direct.

ART. 14. The clerks of the supreme court shall be appointed by the chief justice thereof, and the recorders of deeds, by the justices of the courts of common pleas for each county severally, and commissioned by the president, under the great seal, and continue in office five years, if they behave themselves well.

ART. 15. The sheriffs and coroners of the respective counties shall be chosen annually, as heretofore; and any person, having served three years as sheriff, shall be ineligible for three years after; and the president and privy council shall have the appointment of such of the two candidates, returned for said offices of sheriff and coroner, as they shall think best qualified, in the same manner that the governor heretofore enjoyed this power.

ART. 16. The general assembly, by joint ballots shall appoint the generals and field-officers, and all other officers in the army or navy of this State; and the president may appoint, during pleasure, until otherwise directed by the legislature, all necessary civil officers not hereinbefore mentioned.

ART. 17. There shall be an appeal from the supreme court of Delaware, in matters of law and equity, to a court of seven persons, to consist of the president for the time being, who shall preside therein, and six others, to be appointed, three by the legislative council, and three by the house of assembly, who shall continue in office during good behavior, and be commissioned by the president, under the great seal; which court shall be styled the "court of appeals," and have all the authority and powers heretofore given by law in the last resort to the King in council, under the old government. The secretary shall be the clerk of this court; and vacancies therein occasioned by death or incapacity, shall be supplied by new elections, in manner . aforesaid.

ART. 18. The justices of the supreme court and courts of common pleas, the members of the privy council, the secretary, the trustees of the loan office, and clerks of the court of common pleas, during their continuance in office, and all persons concerned in any army or navy contracts, shall be ineligible to either house of assembly; and any member of either house accepting of any other of the offices herein before mentioned (excepting the office of a justice of the peace) shall have his seat thereby vacated, and a new election shall be ordered.

ART. 19. The legislative council and assembly shall have the power of making the great seal of this State, which shall be kept by the president, or, in his absence, by the vice-president, to be used by them as occasion may require. It shall be called "The Great Seal of the Delaware State," and shall be affixed to all laws and commissions.

ART. 20. Commissions shall run in the name of "The Delaware State," and bear test by the president Writs shall run in the same manner, and bear test in the name of the chief-justice, or justice first named in the commissions for the several courts, and be sealed with the public seals of such courts. Indictments shall conclude, "Against the peace and dignity of the State."

ART. 21. In case of vacancy of the offices above directed to be filled by the president and general assembly, the president and privy council may appoint others in their stead until there shall be a new election.

ART. 22. Every person who shall be chosen a member of either house, or appointed to any office or place of trust, before taking his seat, or entering upon the execution of his office, shall take the following oath, or affirmation, if conscientiously scrupulous of taking an oath, to wit:

" I, A B. will bear true allegiance to the Delaware State, submit to its constitution and laws, and do no act wittingly whereby the freedom thereof may be prejudiced."

And also make and subscribe the following declaration, to wit:

" I, A B. do profess faith in God the Father, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, and in the Holy Ghost, one God, blessed for evermore; and I do acknowledge the holy scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be given by divine inspiration."

And all officers shall also take an oath of office.

ART. 23. The president, when he is out of office, and within eighteen months after, and all others offending against the State, either by maladministration, corruption, or other means, by which the safety of the Commonwealth may be endangered, within eighteen months after the offence committed, shall be impeachable by the house of assembly before the legislative council; such impeachment to be prosecuted by the attorney-general, or such other person or persons as the house of assembly may appoint, according to the laws of the land. If found guilty, he or they shall be either forever disabled to hold any office under government, or removed from office pro tempore, or subjected to such pains and penalties as the laws shall direct. And all officers shall be removed on conviction of misbehavior at common law, or on impeachment, or upon the address of the general assembly.

ART. 24. All acts of assembly in force in this State on the 15th day of May last (and not hereby altered, or contrary to the resolutions of Congress or of the late house of assembly of this State) shall so continue, until altered or repealed by the legislature of this State, unless where they are temporary, in which case they shall expire at the times respectively limited for their duration.

ART. 25. The common law of England, as-well as so much of the statute law as has been heretofore adopted in practice in this State, shall remain in force, unless they shall be altered by a future law of the legislature; such parts only excepted as are repugnant to the rights and privileges contained in this constitution, and the declaration of rights, &c., agreed to by this convention.

ART. 26. No person hereafter imported into this State from Africa ought to be held in slavery under any presence whatever; and no negro, Indian, or mulatto slave ought to be brought into this State, for sale, from any part of the world.

ART. 27. The first election for the general assembly of this State shall be held on the List day of October next, at the court-houses in the several counties, in the manner heretofore used in the election of the assembly, except as to the choice of inspectors and assessors, where assessors have not been chosen on the 16th day of September, instant, which shall be made on the morning of the day of election, by the electors, inhabitants of the respective hundreds in each county. At which time the sheriffs and coroners, for the said counties respectively, are to be elected; and the present sheriffs of the counties of Newcastle and Kent may be rechosen to that office until the 1st day of October, A. D. 1779; and the present sheriff for the county of Sussex may be rechosen to that office until the 1st day of October, A. D. 1778, provided the freemen think proper to reelect them at every general election; and the present sheriffs and coroners, respectively, shall continue to exercise their offices as heretofore, until the sheriffs and coroners, to be elected on the said 21st day of October, shall be commissioned and sworn into office. The members of the legislative council and assembly shall meet, for transacting the business of the State, on the 28th day of October next, and continue in office until the 1st day of October, which will be in the year 1777; on which day, and on the 1st day of October in each year forever after, the legislative council, assembly, sheriffs, and coroners shall be chosen by ballot, in manner directed by the several laws of this State, for regulating elections of members of assembly and sheriffs and coroners; and the general assembly shall meet on the 20th day of the same month for the transacting the business of the State; and if any of the said 1st and 20th days of October should be Sunday, then, and in such case, the elections shall be held, and the general assembly meet, the next day following.

ART. 28. To prevent any violence or force being used at the said elections, no person shall come armed to any of them, and no muster of the militia shall be made on that day; nor shall any battalion or company give in their votes immediately succeeding each other, if any other voter, who offers to vote, objects thereto; nor shall any battalion or company, in the pay of the continent, or of this or any other State, be suffered to remain at the time and place of holding the said elections, nor within one mile of the said places respectively, for twenty-four hours before the opening said elections, nor within twenty-four hours after the same are closed, so as in any manner to impede the freely and conveniently carrying on the said election: Provided always, That every elector may, in a peaceable and orderly manner, give in his vote on the said day of election.

ART. 29. There shall be no establishment of any one religious sect in this State in preference to another; and no clergyman or preacher of the gospel, of any denomination, shall be capable of holding any civil once in this State, or of being a member of either of the branches of the legislature, while they continue in the exercise of the pastoral function.

ART. 30. No article of the declaration of rights and fundamental rules of this State, agreed to by this convention, nor the first, second, fifth, (except that part thereof that relates to the right of suffrage,) twenty-sixth, and twenty-ninth articles of this constitution, ought ever to be violated on any presence whatever. No other part of this constitution shall be altered, changed, or diminished without the consent of five parts in seven of the assembly, and seven members of the legislative council.

of age, owing a whole lot of land in the said city of Annapolis, or having a visible estate of £20 sterling at the least, within this province, or having served five years to any trade within the said city and being a house-keeper, and no others, be admitted to vote for representatives to serve in the said convention for the said city, provided such person shall have resided in the county, district, city, or town, where he shall offer to vote, one whole year next preceding the election.

That all elections of the said representatives be free, and that the same be made viva voce in the manner heretofore used in this colony, without any regard to any act of parliament or other qualifications than before mentioned. And to prevent any violence or force being used at the said elections, no person shall come armed to any of them, and that no muster of the militia be made on the day on which any of the said elections shall be held, nor shall any battalion or company of the militia, or any ten men thereof, give in their votes immediately succeeding each other, if any other voter who offers to vote objects thereto; nor shall any soldiers in the pay of this province be suffered to collect at the time and place of holding any of the said elections, so as in any manner to impede the freely and convenient carrying on such elections.

Resolved, That no person holding a commission or office in the regular forces of this province, shall during the time of his holding the same, be eligible as a representative aforesaid; nor shall any person who shall hereafter accept of any commission or office in the land or sea service, or shall enlist in the regular forces raised or to be raised for the continental service, or the service of this or any other colony, be eligible as a representative as aforesaid, or hold any office or place in the civil department, or have a right to vote at any election, during the time he shall hold such commission or office in the military forces, or being therein enlisted as aforesaid.

That any person qualified as aforesaid to vote, may be elected a member of the intended convention, provided he be above 21 years of age, and shall have resided in the colony one whole year preceding the election.

That no person who has been published by any committee of observation, or the council of safety of this colony, as an enemy to the liberties of America, and has not been restored to the favour of his country, shall be permitted to vote at the election of members for the said convention.

That the intended elections for all the said counties and districts, be made on Thursday the first day of August next, but if any of them should not be finished on that day, then the judges of such

CHAPTER CLXVII.

An ACT for the regulation of the militia of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 1. WHEREAS a militia law, founded upon just and equitable principles, hath been ever regarded as the best security of liberty, and the most effectual means of drawing forth and exerting the natural strength of a state.

SECT. 2. And whereas a well regulated militia is the only safe and constitutional method of defending a free state, as the necessity of keeping up a standing army, especially in times of peace, is thereby superseded.

SECT. 3. And whereas the militia law of this commonwealth, enacted by the general assembly the seventeenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven, from a change of circumstances and other causes, hath become insufficient to answer the purposes aforesaid, which renders it highly necessary that a new law should be enacted. Therefore,

SECT. 4. Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the representatives of the freemen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That the president in council, or, in his absence, the vice president in council, of this commonwealth, shall appoint and commissionate one reputable freeholder in the city of Philadelphia, and one in each county within this state, to serve as lieutenants of the militia for the said city and counties respectively; and also any number of persons not exceeding two for the said city; and in the several counties any number not exceeding the President in council to appoint a lieutenant in each county.

SECT. 58. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the lieutenant colonel or commanding officer of any battalion shall neglect or refuse to give orders for assembling his battalion at the times appointed by this law, or at the direction of the lieutenant or sub lieutenant of the city or any county, when the said lieutenant or sub lieutenant is thereto commanded by the president or vice president in council, or in case of an invasion of the city or county to which such battalion belongs, he shall be cashiered and punished by fine at the discretion of a general court martial; and if a commissioned officer of any company shall on any occasion neglect or refuse to give orders for assembling the company to which he belongs, or any part thereof, at the direction of the lieutenant colonel or commanding officer of the battalion to which such company belongs, he shall be cashiered and punished by fine at the discretion of a regimental court martial; and a non commissioned officer offending in such case shall be fined in any sum not exceeding the price of ten days labour.

SECT. 59. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any captain or commanding officer of a company shall refuse or neglect to make out a list of the persons noticed to perform any tour of duty, and send or convey the same to the lieutenant colonel or commanding officer of the battalion to which such company may belong, for such neglect or refusal he shall be cashiered or fined, at the discretion of a regimental court martial.

SECT. 60. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the following rules and regulations shall be those by which the militia shall be governed.

1st. Every general court martial shall consist of thirteen members, all of whom shall be commissioned officers, and

and of such rank as the case may require, and these thirteen shall choose a president, out of their number who shall be a field officer.

2d. Every regimental court martial shall be composed of five members, all commissioned officers, who are to choose one of their members a president, not under the rank of a captain.

3d. In any court martial, not less than two thirds of the members must agree in every sentence for inflicting any punishment, otherwise the person charged shall be acquitted.

4th. The president of each and every court martial, whether general or regimental, shall require all witnesses, in order to the trial of offenders, to declare on oath or affirmation, that the evidence they shall give is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; and the members of all such courts shall take an oath or affirmation, which the president is required to administer to the other members, and the next in rank is required to administer to him, that they will give judgment with impartiality.

5th. All members of any militia, called as witnesses in any case before a court martial, who shall refuse to attend and give evidence, shall be censured or fined at the discretion of the court.

6th. No officer or private man being charged with transgressing these rules shall be suffered to do duty in the battalion, company or troop to which he belongs, until he has had his trial by a court martial, and every person so charged shall be tried as soon as a court martial can be conveniently assembled.

7th. If any officer or private man shall think himself injured by his lieutenant colonel or the commanding officer of the battalion, and shall upon due application made to him, be refused redress, he may complain to the lieutenant of the county, who shall summon a general court martial, that justice may be done.

8th. If any inferior officer or private man shall think himself injured by his captain, or other superior officer in the battalion, troop or company to which he belongs, he may complain to the commanding officer of the battalion, who shall summon a regimental court martial for the doing justice, according to the nature of the case.

9th. No penalty shall be inflicted at the discretion of a court martial other than degrading, cashiering or fining.

10th. The commanding officer of the militia for the time being, shall have full power of pardoning or mitigating ing any censures or penalties ordered to be inflicted on any private or non commissioned officer for the breach of any of these articles by a general court martial; and every offender, convicted as aforesaid by any regimental court martial, may be pardoned, or have the penalty mitigated by the lieutenant colonel or commanding officer of the battalion, excepting only where such censures or penalties are directed as satisfaction for injuries received by one officer or private man from another; but in case of officers, such sentence to be approved by the commander in chief or the nearest general officer of the militia, who are respectively empowered to pardon or mitigate such sentence or disapprove the same.

11th. The militia on the days of exercise may be detained under arms on duty in the field any time not exceeding six hours, provided they are not kept above three hours under arms at any one time, without allowing them a proper time to refresh themselves.

12th. No company or battalion shall meet at a tavern on any of the days of exercise, nor shall march to any tavern before they are discharged; and any person who shall bring any kind of spirituous liquor to such place of training shall forfeit such liquors so brought for the use of the poor belonging to the township where such offender lives.

Fines, how to be paid in.

13th. All fines that shall be incurred by any breach of these rules shall be paid into the hands of the clerk of the company to which the offenders belong; but if a field officer, to the clerk of that company whose captain has the first rank in the battalion, within three weeks after they become due; but in case of neglect or refusal to pay any of the said fines, then in such case, upon application made by the clerk to whom such fine or fines ought to have been paid, it shall and may be lawful for any one justice of the peace of the county (if the fines do not exceed fifty pounds, or two justices, if above that sum) by warrant under his or their hands and seals, to levy such fine or fines respectively on the offender's goods and chattels, and otherwise proceed in recovering the same as is by law directed. And when recovered, the said justice or justices are required to pay such fines into the hands of the clerk who applied for recovery and shall be applied as other fines before directed.

same offenders come not as afore is said, and the proclamation made and returned, they shall be convict and attainted of the riot, assembly, or rout aforesaid: And moreover the Justices of Peace in every county or corporation; where such riot, assembly, or rout of people shall be made, in case the same be made in their presence, or if none be present, then the Justices having notice thereof, together with the Sheriff, under Sheriff, or Serjeant, of the same county or corporation, shall do execution of this act, every one upon pain of twenty pounds, to be paid to the Commonwealth, as often as they shall be found in default of the execution of the said act; and on such default of the Justices and Sheriff, under Sheriff, or Serjeant, a commission shall go from the General Court at the instance of the party grieved, to enquire as well of the truth of the case, and of the original matter for the party complainant, as of the default or defaults of the said Justices, Sheriff, under Sheriff, or Serjeant, in this behalf supposed, to be directed to sufficient and indifferent persons at the nomination of the Judges; and the said Commissioners presently shall return into the General Court the inquests and matters before them in this behalf taken and found: But no persons convicted of a riot, rout, and unlawful assembly, shall be imprisoned for such offence by a longer space of time than one year. Persons legally convicted of a riot, rout, or unlawful assembly, otherwise than in the manner directed by this act, shall be punished by imprisonment and amerced, at the discretion of a jury, under the like limitation.

C H A P. XLIX.

An ACT forbidding and punishing AFFRAYS.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That no man, great nor small, of what condition soever he be, except the Ministers of Justice in executing the precepts of the courts of justice, or in executing of their office, and such as be in their company assisting them, be so hardy to come before the Justices of any court, or either of their Ministers of Justice, doing their office, with force and arms; on pain to forfeit their armour to the Commonwealth, and their bodies to prison, at the pleasure of a court; nor go nor ride armed by night nor by day, in fairs or markets, or in other places, in terror of the county, upon pain of being arrested and committed to prison by any Justice on his own view, or proof by others, there to abide for so long a time as a jury, to be sworn for that purpose by the said Justice, shall direct, and in like manner to forfeit his armour to the Commonwealth; but no person shall be imprisoned for such offence by a longer space of time than one month:

C H A P. L.

An ACT against CONSPIRATORS.

BE it declared and enacted by the General Assembly, That conspirators be they that do confederate and bind themselves by oath, covenant, or other alliance, that every of them shall aid and bear the other falsely and maliciously, to move or cause to be moved any enticement or information against another on the part of the Commonwealth, and those who are convicted thereof at the suit of the Commonwealth, shall be punished by imprisonment and amerced, at the discretion of a jury.

C H A P. LI.

An ACT against conveying or taking PRETENDED TITLES.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That no person shall convey or take; or bargain to convey or take, any pretended title to any lands or tenements, unless the person conveying or bargaining to convey, or those under whom he claims shall have been in possession of the same, or of the reversion or remainder thereof one whole year next before; and he who offendeth herein knowingly, shall forfeit the whole value of the lands or tenements; the one moiety to the Commonwealth, and the other to him who will sue as well for himself as for the Commonwealth: But any person lawfully possessed of lands or tenements, or of the reversion or remainder thereof, may nevertheless take or bargain to take the pretended title of any other person, so far and so far only as it may confirm his former estate.

C H A P. LII.

An ACT to punish BRIBERY and EXTORTION.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That no Treasurer, Keeper of any Public Seal, Councillor of State, Counsel for the Commonwealth, Judge, or Attorney at law, practising either in the General Court, High Court of Chancery, Court of Appeals, Court of Admiralty, or Inferior Courts, Clerk of the Peace, Sheriff, Coronet, Escheator, nor any officer of the Commonwealth, shall, in time to come, take, in any form, any manner of gift, brokerage, or reward for doing his office, other than is, or shall be allowed by some act of General Assembly, passed after the institution of the Commonwealth; that is to say, after the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy six; and he that doth, shall pay unto the party grieved, the treble value of that he hath received, shall be amerced and imprisoned at the discretion of a jury, and shall be discharged from his office forever; and he who will sue in the said matter, shall have suit as well for the Commonwealth as for himself, and the third part of the amercedment.

LAW^S
OF THE
STATE OF NEW-YORK, PASSED BY THE LEGISLATURE AT THEIR TENTH SESSION.

CHAP. I.

AN ACT concerning the rights of the citizens of this State.

PASSED the 26th of January, 1787.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly and it is hereby enacted and declared by the authority of the same.

All authority derived from State First, That no authority shall, on any pretence whatsoever be exercised over the citizens of this State but such as is or shall be derived from and granted by the people of this State.

Right of property and personal liberty. Second, That no citizen of this State shall be taken or imprisoned or be dispossessed of his or her freehold or liberties of free customs or outlawed or exiled or condemned or otherwise destroyed, but by lawful judgment of his or her peers or by due process of law.

Third, That no citizen of this State shall be taken or imprisoned for any offence upon petition or suggestion unless it be by indictment or presentment of good and lawful men of the same neighbourhood where such deeds be done, in due manner or by due process of law.

Id. Fourth, That no person shall be put to answer without presentment before justices, or matter of record, or due process of law according to the law of the land and if any thing be done to the contrary it shall be void in law and holden for error.

Id. Fifth, That no person, of what estate or condition soever shall be taken or imprisoned, or disinherited or put to death without being brought to answer by due process of law, and that no person shall be put out of his or her franchise or freehold or lose his or her life or limb, or goods and chattels, unless he or she be duly brought to answer and be forejudged of the same by due course of law and if any thing be done contrary to the same it shall be void in law and holden for none.

CHAP. I.]

TENTH SESSION.

345

Sixth That neither justice, nor right shall be sold to any person, nor ^{Justice to be free.} denied nor deferred; and that writs and process shall be granted freely and without delay to all persons requiring the same and nothing from henceforth shall be paid or taken for any writ or process but the accustomed fee for writing and for the seal of the same writ or process and all fines duties and impositions whatsoever heretofore taken or demanded under what name or description soever, for or upon granting any writs, inquests, commissions or process to suitors in their causes shall be and hereby are abolished.

Seventh That no citizens of this State shall be fined or amerced without reasonable cause and such fine or amerciament shall always be according to the quantity of his or her trespass or offence and saving to him or her, his or her contencement; That is to say every freeholder saving his freehold, a merchant saving his merchandize and a mechanick saving the implements of his trade.

Eighth That excessive bail ought not to be required, nor excestive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Ninth That all elections shall be free and that no person by force of arms nor by malice or menacing or otherwise presume to disturb or hinder any citizen of this State to make free election upon pain of fine and imprisonment and treble damages to the party grieved.

Tenth That it is the right of the citizens of this State to petition the person administering the government of this State for the time being, or either house of the legislature and all commitments and prosecutions for such petitioning are illegal.

Eleventh That the freedom of speech and debates and proceedings in the senate and assembly shall not be impeached or questioned in any court or place out of the senate or assembly.

Twelfth That no tax duty aid or imposition whatsoever shall be taken or levied within this State without the grant and assent of the people of this State by their representatives in senate and assembly and that no citizen of this State shall be by any means compelled to contribute to any gift loan tax or other like charge not set laid or imposed by the legislature of this State: And further, that no citizen of this State shall be constrained to arm himself or to go out of this State or to find soldiers or men of arms either horsemen or footmen, if it be not by assent and grant of the people of this State by their representatives in senate and assembly.

Thirteenth That by the laws and customs of this State the citizens and inhabitants thereof cannot be compelled against their wills to receive soldiers into their houses and to sojourn them there and therefore no officer military or civil nor any other person whatsoever shall from henceforth presume to place, quarter or billet any soldier or soldiers upon any citizen or inhabitant of this State of any degree or profession whatever without his or her consent and that it shall and may be lawful for every such citizen and inhabitant to refuse to sojourn or quarter any soldier or soldiers notwithstanding any command order warrant or billeting whatever.

C H A P. VIII.

Nothing shall be taken for Beauplauder.

ITEM, Whereas some of the realm have grievously complained, that they be grieved by Sheriffs, naming themselves the King's approvers, which take money by extortion for Beauplauder, the King will, that the Statute of Marlbridge that be observed and kept in this point.

C H A P. XIV.

None shall commit Maintenance.

ITEM, Because the King desireth that common right be administered to all persons, as well poor as rich, he commandeth and defendeth, that none of his Counsellors, nor of his house, nor none other of his Ministers, nor no great man of the realm by himself, nor by other, by sending of letters, nor otherwise, nor none other in this land, great nor small, shall take upon them to maintain quarrels nor parties in the country, to the let and disturbance of the common law.

Statutes made at Northampton, tribus Septimanis Paschae, in the Second Year of the Reign of Edward the Third, and in the Year of our Lord 1328.

C H A P. I.

A Confirmation of the Great Charter and the Charter of the Forest.

[Unnecessary to be inserted.]

C H A P. III.

No Man shall come before the Justices, or go or ride armed.

ITEM, It is enacted, that no man great nor small, of what condition soever he be, except the King's servants in his presence, and his Ministers in executing of the King's precepts, or of their office, and such as be in their company afflicting them, and also upon a cry made for arms to keep the peace, and the same in such places where such acts happen, be so hardy to come before the King's Justices, or other of the King's

Ministers doing their office with force and arms, nor bring no force in an affray of peace, nor to go nor ride armed by night nor by day, in fairs, markets, nor in the presence of the King's Justices, or other ministers, nor in no part elsewhere, upon pain to forfeit their armor to the King, and their bodies to prison at the King's pleasure. And that the King's Justices in their presence, Sheriffs and other ministers, in their bailiwicks, Lords of Franchises, and their bailiffs in the same, and Mayors and Bailiffs of cities and boroughs, within the same cities and boroughs, and borough-holders, constables and wardens of the peace within their wards shall have power to execute this act. And that the Justices assigned, at their coming down into the country, shall have power to enquire how such officers and lords have exercised their offices in this case, and to punish them whom they find that have not done that which pertain to their office.

C H A P. V.

The Manner how Writs shall be delivered to the Sheriff to be executed.

ITEM where it was ordained by the statute of Westminster the second, that they which will deliver their writs to the Sheriff shall deliver them in the full county, or in the mere county, and that the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall thereupon make a bill: it is accorded and established, that at what time or place in the county a man doth deliver any writ to the Sheriff or to the Under-Sheriff, that they shall receive the same writs, and make a bill after the form contained in the same statute, without taking any thing therefore. And if they refuse to make a bill, others that be present shall set to their seals, and if the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff do not return the said writs, they shall be punished after the form contained in the said statute. And also the Justices of Assize shall have power to enquire thereof at every man's complaint, and to award damages, as having respect to the delay, and to the loss and peril that might happen.

C H A P. VI.

Justices shall have Power to punish Breakers of the Peace.

ITEM, as to the keeping of the peace in time to come, it is ordained and enacted that the statutes made in time past, with the statute of Winchester, shall be observed and kept in every point: and where it is contained in the end of said statute of Winchester, that the Justices assigned shall have power to enquire of defaults, and to report to the King in his next parliament, and the King to remedy it, which no man hath yet seen, the same Justices shall have power to punish the offenders and disobeyers.

And the Governor shall designate and commission for that purpose, all officers necessary and proper for the command of such volunteers.

Volunteers to receive money in advance

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That all volunteer officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, whose service may be tendered and accepted under the provisions of this act, shall, at such place or places of rendezvous as the Governor shall appoint within this state, be entitled to receive in advance, the sum of ten dollars, to be taken and considered as a part of their pay.

Forces when raised how to be disposed of Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That the forces to be raised and organized, as provided by this act, shall be disposed of according to the discretion of their Governor (that discretion subject only to the requisitions of the general government) and shall be liable to be marched to any place, and engaged in the service of the U. States, as the exigencies of the present war may, in the opinion of the executive, require.

The Governor authorized to draw money from the treasury or borrow from banks

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the governor of this commonwealth, for the purpose of carrying into effect the third section of this act, shall be authorized to draw from the Treasury of this state, any sums of money that may be necessary therefor; or in case of deficiency in the public funds, to borrow from any Bank or individuals, upon the best terms he can obtain such additional sums as may be necessary for the purpose aforesaid.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the powers vested in the Governor by the first and second sections of this act, shall be exercised and carried into effect by him to such extent, and in such a manner and time, as his own discretion and the emergency of public affairs may dictate.

CHAP. LXXXIX.

AN ACT to prevent persons in this Commonwealth from wearing concealed Arms, except in certain cases.

Approved, February 3, 1813.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That any person in this commonwealth, who shall hereafter wear a pocket pistol, dirk, large knife, or sword in a cane, concealed as a weapon, unless when travelling on a journey, shall be fined in any sum, not less than one hundred dollars; which may be recovered in any court having jurisdiction of like sums, by action of debt, or on the presentment of a grand jury—and a prosecutor in such presentment shall not be necessary. One half of such fine shall be to the use of the informer, and the other to the use of this commonwealth.

This act shall commence and be in force, from and after the first day of June.

CHAP. XC.

AN ACT to amend the Militia Law.

Approved February 3, 1813.

Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That if any non-commissioned officer, musician or private, failing to march, or furnishing an able bodied substitute in his place, when ordered and lawfully called on, or leaving the service without a discharge from the proper officer, shall be considered as a deserter, & treated as followeth, to wit: Any person may apprehend such deserter, and deliver him to the officer commanding such detachment, or any recruiting officer within this commonwealth, and take his receipt for the same; which receipt shall describe the name of such deserter, and the length of time he was to serve, and by whom he was delivered—which receipt shall be assignable; and the reward for taking and so delivering such deserter, as aforesaid, shall be a credit for a tour or tours of duty for the length of time such deserter was bound to serve; and said deserter shall serve out the term of time aforesaid before he shall be discharged, in addition to the time he was to serve, if such term of time is then required; otherwise shall serve said tour or tours, when required so to do. And any person holding such receipt, when he is called on to perform a tour or tours of duty, and producing the same to the captain calling on him, it shall be the duty of said captain to receive the same, and give the owner thereof a credit for as many tours as is therein contained.

Sec. 2. And where any delinquent militia-man shall belong to any society who hold a community of property, the sheriff shall call on the agent or superintendent of the common stock, or firm of said society, or compact, for the same; and if he fails to pay the same as before described, the sheriff shall make distress, and sell so much of the property belonging to said stock, as will satisfy the fine, cost, &c. as is before directed.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That brigade inspectors and brigade quarter masters, when not taken from the line, shall each be entitled to the rank, pay, and emoluments of a major of infantry ; and adjutants, regimental pay-masters, and quarter masters, when not taken from the line, shall each be entitled to the rank, pay, and emoluments of lieutenants of infantry ; and whether taken from the line or not, shall receive the additional pay of ten dollars per month, and for forage for one horse.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That where any non-commissioned officer or private who may conscientiously scruple to bear arms, is legally called on to perform a tour of duty, in the service of this state or the United States, shall perform the same by himself or an able bodied substitute; and, upon failure, the commanding officer of the company shall hire a substitute, and the person failing to perform his tour, shall pay the price said officer may agree to give said substitute, not exceeding one hundred dollars; which sum may be recovered by action of debt, before any court having jurisdiction of like sums.

Oaths
Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That while the militia are either in the actual service of this state or the United States, the several oaths which militia officers are required by law to take, may be administered by any commissioned officer belonging to the same corps.

Former law

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That so much of the militia law, as requires the commandants of companies to lay off their companies into ten classes for an equal routine of duty, shall be and the same is hereby repealed,

Companies
how to be classed
Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That hereafter, when the captains of companies are commanded to detach any number of men from their respective companies for the service of this state or the United States, it shall be the duty of each captain to lay off his company by lot, into as many classes, as the number of men he is ordered to detach ; and the class or classes failing voluntarily to furnish a man, shall determine by lot which man shall do the duty required ; and the man, which each class may voluntarily furnish, and also the man selected by lot, shall be entitled to a credit for as many tours of duty as they may serve. But it is clearly to be understood, that no man shall be called on to perform a tour of duty, who has been drafted on the late six months' expedition, and served his tour by himself or substitute, or has volunteered and served said tour. And whereas, a

AN ACT

Against carrying concealed weapons, and going armed in public places in an unnecessary manner.

Preamble

Whereas assassination and attempts to commit the same, have of late been of such frequent occurrence as to become a subject of serious alarm to the peaceable and well disposed inhabitants of this state; and whereas the same is in a great measure to be attributed to the dangerous and wicked practice of carrying about in public places concealed and deadly weapons, or going to the same armed in an unnecessary manner, therefore;

Penalty for carrying concealed weapons.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the state of Louisiana, in general assembly convened, That from and after the passage of this act, any person who shall be found with any concealed weapon, such as a dirk, dagger, knife, pistol or any other deadly weapon concealed in his bosom, coat or in any other place about him that do not appear in full open view, any person so offending, shall on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, be subject to pay a fine not to exceed fifty dol-Peines pour défaut.

SECT. 3. Et il est de plus décreté, Que lesdits administrateurs nommeront un commis et un collecteur de taxe, dont le temps de service finira en même temps que celui des administrateurs et qui auront droit à la compensation que les administrateurs jugeront à propos de leur accorder.

ACTE

Pour défendre de porter des armes cachées et de se présenter armé d'une manière inutile dans les endroits publics.

Vu qu'il s'est commis dernièrement des assassinats et qu'il a été essayé d'en commettre d'autres de manière à causer de sérieuses alarmes aux habitans paisibles et bien disposés de cet état, et vu qu'on doit en grande partie attribuer la cause de ces assassinats à la coutume pernicieuse et condamnable de porter dans des endroits publics, des armes cachées et dangereuses, ou de s'y rendre armé d'une manière inutile,

SECT. 1ère. Il est décrété par le sénat et la chambre des Représentants de l'Etat de la Louisiane réunis en Assemblée Générale, Qu'à dater de la passation de cet acte, toute personne qui sera trouvée armée d'aucune arme cachée, tels que poignard, dague, couteau, pistolet ou toute autre arme meurtrière dans son habit ou ailleurs sur lui et qui ne seront point os- tentables, toute personne coupable de cette contra- vention, sera, sur conviction du fait, devant un juge de paix, condamnée à une amende qui n'excédera pas trate invited by the Mayor to replace him thereto in case of his absence. Provided that the place so reserved for the Mayor or other persons sent in his place shall be furnished without said managers being entitled to any compensation, and they shall adhere to this condition before obtaining a license to open their theatres.

ART. 14. The Mayor, as often as he may deem it necessary, shall examine whether the theatres, places of public resort be constructed with the requisite solidity, and carefully kept in repair, so that the public may assemble there without danger; and he shall take suitable measures to prevent the accidents that might result from any negligence in that respect on the part of the proprietors, tenants or other persons having the management or direction of the said theatres, places of public spectacles, or other places of public resort.

ART. 15. The manager, acting manager or other person having the management or direction of a theatre, shall place and constantly keep, within the play-house, several large tubs, and at least one fire-engine in good repair, which must be filled on days of performance; and on failure of complying with this requisite, and until the manager shall have complied with it, the Mayor shall order the theatre to be and remain shut up.

ART. 16. By virtue of the powers granted by law to the Mayor and City Council, the Mayor shall cause to be shut up any place of public resort, whenever the maintenance of order, the public safety or tranquillity may require it.

Approved, June 8, 1816.

An Ordinance respecting public Balls.

THE CITY COUNCIL ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS :

ART. 1. It shall not be lawful for any person to enter into a public ball-room with any cane, stick, sword or any other weapon, and every person having either a cane, stick, sword or any other weapon, shall, before he enter the ball-room, deposite the same at the office which shall be at the door of the entrance of said ball-room, where there will be a person appointed to receive and take care of such articles which he shall carefully keep, affixing to each article a number, a check of which he shall give to the owner; and said articles shall not be returned to the persons respectively depositing them, until said persons are quitting the balls and produce their checks.

ART. 2. Every person entering in any public ball-room, in contravention to the above provision, shall pay a fine of five dollars; and every person giving a public ball without having previously established an office at the door of the entrance of said ball-room, and without appointing a person to receive and take care, in the manner aforesaid, of the articles before mentioned shall pay a fine of twenty-five dollars, and if the offence is repeated, the offender shall forfeit the right to hold any further permission to give such public balls.

the commanding officer of said company; and if any commissioned officer shall issue such certificate to any person, who is not entitled under the provisions of this act to receive the same, he shall be cashiered or fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, in the discretion of such court-martial as the case may require; and if any person shall give such certificate who is not authorized to do so by the provisions of this act, such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, the recovery of which shall be directed by any officer discovering the same.

41. And be it enacted, That the commanding officer of each company shall appoint and dismiss, at his pleasure, his non-commissioned officers, and if any person so appointed, having accepted of such appointment, shall neglect to do the duties thereof, or refuse or neglect to obey the orders of his superior officers, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor exceeding ten dollars, in the discretion of such court-martial as the case may require.

42. And be it enacted, That if any field or other commissioned officer shall be guilty of any breach of orders, or shall at any brigade, regimental, extra battalion, battalion, or company meeting, or on any other occasion when the brigade, regiment, extra battalion, battalion or company, to which he may belong, or in or over which he holds a command, is paraded, or on duty, as prescribed in this act, or in the by-laws of any company, shall misbehave, demean himself, or appear in an unofficer like manner, he shall, for such offence, be cashiered, suspended, reprimanded, or punished by fine, in the discretion of such court-martial as the case may require, not exceeding one hundred dollars, nor less than five dollars; and that the proceedings of every court-martial in case of cashiering, shall be transmitted to the commander in chief for his approbation or disapprobation: and if any non-commissioned officer, private or musician, shall at the time of parading the company (as directed by this act, or in the by-laws of the company to which he belongs) appear drunk, or disobey orders, or use any reproachful, insulting, or abusive language, to his officers, or any of them, or shall quarrel himself, or promote any quarrel among his fellow soldiers, or interrupt them in the discharge of their duty, he may be disarmed, and put under guard, by order of the commanding officer, until the company is dismissed, and shall be fined, at the discretion of such court-martial as the case may require, a sum not exceeding twenty dollars; and if on field days, or when the brigade, regiment, or extra battalion, is paraded, any non-commissioned officer, private or musician, shall use any reproachful or insulting language to the commanding officer, oppose his orders, or promote an opposition to such orders among his fellow soldiers, he shall be disarmed and put under guard, during such parade, and he shall be tried by a court-martial, chosen by the commanding officer, consisting of three commissioned officers, attached to the regiment or extra battalion to which such offender belongs, and he shall be fined a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of said court.

43. And be it enacted, That if any by-stander shall intercept, molest or insult, any officer, or soldier while on duty, at any time as required by this act or by the by-laws of any company, the commanding officer, at the time of such offence, may

CHAPTER LXXVI.

An Act describing the power of Justices of the Peace in Civil and Criminal Cases.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate, and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That it shall be within the power, and be the duty of every Justice of the Peace within his county, to punish by fine not exceeding five dollars, all assaults and batteries that are not of a high and aggravated nature, and to examine into all homicides, murders, treasons, and felonies done and committed in his county, and commit to prison all persons guilty, or suspected to be guilty of manslaughter, murder, treason or other capital offence; and to cause to be staid and arrested, all affrayers, rioters, disturbers or breakers of the peace, and such as shall ride or go armed offensively, to the fear or terror of the good citizens of this State, or such others as may utter any menaces or threatening speeches; and upon view of such Justice, confession of the delinquent, or other legal conviction of any such offence, shall require of the offender to find sureties to appear and answer for his offence, at the Supreme Judicial Court, or Circuit Court of Common Pleas, next to be held within or for the same county, at the discretion of the Justice, and as the nature or circumstances of the case may require; and for his keeping the peace, and being of the good behaviour, until the sitting of the Court he is to appear before; and to hold to bail all persons guilty or suspected to be guilty of lesser offences which are not cognizable by a Justice of the Peace; and require sureties for the good behaviour of dangerous and disorderly persons; and commit all such persons as shall refuse so to recognize, and find such surety or sureties as aforesaid; and take cognizance of, or examine into all other crimes, matters and offences, which by particular laws are put within his jurisdiction.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That all fines and forfeitures accruing for the breach of any bye-law, in any town within this State, may be prosecuted for, and recovered before any Justice of the Peace in the town or county where the offence shall be committed, by complaint or information, in the same way and manner other criminal offences are prosecuted before the Justices of the Peace within this State.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That any person aggrieved at the sentence given against him, by any justice of the Peace, may appeal therefrom to the next Circuit Court of Common Pleas to be held within the same county, and shall, before his appeal is granted, recognize to the State in such reasonable sum, not less than twenty dollars, as the Justice shall order, with sufficient surety or sureties for his prosecuting his appeal; and shall be held to produce the copy of the whole process, and all writings filed before the Justice, at the Court appeal-

General jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, and their duty in criminal cases, in arresting, trying, recognizing and committing offenders.

Breaches of the bye-laws of towns may be prosecuted before Justices of the Peace.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the C. Court of Com. Pleas.

Must recognize with sureties, and produce copies of case at C. C. Com. Pleas.

~~Failing to prosecute his appeal, his default to be entered.~~

~~Court may order such case to be laid before Grand Jury, or arrest appellant, and affirm sentence, &c.~~

~~Justices may command assistance of sheriff, deputies and constables at riots, affrays, &c.~~

~~Justices may, on their own view, (in absence of sheriff, deputies or constables,) require any person to apprehend offenders.~~

~~Penalty for refusing to obey such Justice.~~

~~If the Justice be known or declared—plea of ignorance of his office not admissible.~~

~~Justices may grant subpœnas for witnesses in criminal cases:~~

~~But not on behalf of the State without consent of Attorney General, or County Attorney, except before himself.~~

~~Justices to account annually to State, County and Town Treasurers for all fines, &c.~~

~~Penalty for neglect.~~

ed to. And if he shall not there prosecute his appeal, and produce the copies as aforesaid, the Court shall order his default to be noted upon their record. And the said Court may order the same case to be laid before the Grand Jury, or may issue an attachment against the body of such appellant, and cause him thereby to be brought before them, and when he is so in Court, shall affirm the sentence of the Justice against him, with all additional costs.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That each Justice shall have authority to command the assistance of every Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, Constable, and all other persons present at any affray, riot, assault or battery, and may fine any person refusing such assistance, in a sum not exceeding six dollars; to be disposed of for the use of the town where the offence shall be committed; and levied by warrant of distress on the offender's goods and chattels, and for want thereof on his body.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That any Justice of the Peace for the preservation thereof, or upon view of the breach thereof, or upon view of any other transgression of law, proper to his cognizance, done or committed by any person or persons whatever, shall have authority, (in the absence of the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff or Constable,) to require any person or persons to apprehend and bring before him such offender or offenders. And every person so required, who shall refuse or neglect to obey the said Justice, shall be punished in the same manner as for refusing or neglecting to assist any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff or Constable in the execution of his office as aforesaid. And no person who shall refuse or neglect to obey such Justice, to whom he shall be known, or declare himself to be a Justice of the Peace, shall be admitted to plead excuse on any pretence of ignorance of his office.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That Justices of the Peace within their respective counties, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant subpœnas for witnesses in all criminal causes pending before the Supreme Judicial Court and Circuit Court of Common Pleas, and before themselves or any other Justice: Provided, That no Justice of the Peace shall grant subpœnas for witnesses to appear in any Court, except before himself, to testify on behalf of the State, unless by the request of the Attorney General or County Attorney. And all Sheriffs, Constables and other officers are directed and empowered to serve any warrant issuing from a Justice of the Peace.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace shall account annually with the Treasurer of the State, the Treasurer of their respective counties, and the town Treasurer, as the case may be, for all fines by them received or imposed, upon pain of forfeiting the sum of thirty dollars, to be sued for and recovered by the Treasurer of the State, the county or town Treasurer for the time being, to which the said fines may respectively belong.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That all civil actions, wherein the debt or damage does not exceed twenty dollars, (and wherein the title of real estate is not in question, and specially pleaded by the defendant,) shall, and may be heard, tried, adjudged and determined by any Justice of the Peace within his county ; and the Justices are severally empowered to grant summons, capias and attachment, at the request of any person applying for the same, directed to some proper officer within the same county, empowered by law to execute the same. And such summons or capias and attachment shall be duly served by such officer, seven days at the least before the day therein set for trial, otherwise the party sued shall not be held to answer thereon ; and if after such process shall be duly served, the party sued, after being duly called, shall not appear to answer to the same suit, the charge against him in the declaration shall be taken to be true, and the Justice shall give judgment against him for such damages as he shall find the plaintiff to have sustained, with costs; and if the person sued shall appear to defend the suit or oppose the same, the Justice shall award such damages as he shall find the plaintiff to have sustained : Provided, That no more damages than the sum of twenty dollars shall be awarded in any action originally brought or tried before a Justice of the Peace; but if the plaintiff shall not support his action, shall fail to prosecute, or become nonsuit, the Justice shall award to the party sued, his reasonable costs, taxed as the law directs. And upon all Execution, judgments given by a Justice of the Peace in civil actions, he shall award execution thereon in form by law prescribed.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That the amount of the sum or several sums, specified, expressed or supposed to be demanded by the plaintiff in his declaration, shall not be considered as any objection against the Justice's jurisdiction, provided the ad damnum, or damage is not laid or stated to exceed twenty dollars.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That any party aggrieved at the judgment of any Justice of the Peace, in a civil action, where both parties have appeared and plead, may appeal therefrom to the next Circuit Court of Common Pleas to be held within the same county ; and shall before his appeal is allowed, recognize with a surety or sureties, in such reasonable sum as the Justice shall order, not exceeding thirty dollars, to pay all intervening damages and costs, and to prosecute his appeal with effect; and shall be held to produce a copy of the whole case, at the Court appealed to, and both parties shall be allowed to offer any evidence upon the trial at the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, in the same manner as if the cause had been originally commenced there. And no other appeal shall be had on such action after one trial at the Circuit Court of Common Pleas. And the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, when any person recognized as before mentioned to bring forward an action of trespass, doth neglect to do it, upon complaint thereof made in writing by the plaintiff, shall give judgment for such sum in damages, as the plaintiff hath declared for, together with all reasonable costs which accrued both in the same Court and before the Justice. And the Circuit Court of Common Pleas shall, when any appellant thereto shall fail to prosecute his appeal, or if he shall neglect to produce a copy of the case, affirm the former judgment upon the appellee's complaint, and award such additional damages as shall have arisen in consequence of the said appeal, and cost.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That when an action of trespass shall be brought before any Justice of the Peace, and the defendant shall plead the general issue, he shall not be allowed to offer any evidence that may bring the title of real estate in question. And when the defendant in any such action shall plead the title of himself or any other person in justification, the Justice upon having such plea plead, shall order the defendant to recognize to the adverse party in a reasonable sum, with sufficient surety or sureties to enter the said action at the next Circuit Court of Common Pleas to be holden within the same county, and to prosecute the same in the same manner as upon an appeal from a Justice's judgment; and if such pleader shall refuse so to recognize, the Justice shall render judgment against him, in the same manner as if he had refused to make answer to the same suit. And either party in such cause, shall be allowed to appeal from the judgment of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, in the same manner as if the suit had been originally commenced there.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That in all civil actions triable before a Justice of the Peace, except such actions of trespass wherein the defendant means to avail himself, by pleading the title of himself or any other person under whom he claims in justification of the trespass or trespasses alleged to be committed on real estate; the defendant shall be entitled to all evidence, under the general issue, which by law he might avail himself of under any special plea in excuse or justification, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That each Justice of the Peace may grant subpoenas for witnesses in all civil actions and causes pending before the Supreme Judicial Court, Circuit Court of Common Pleas, Court of Sessions, and before him or any other Justices, and in all civil actions and causes pending before arbitrators or referees. And every Justice of the Peace shall have power by public proclamation to adjourn the trial of any action brought before him, from time to time, when equity may require it; but he shall not be of counsel to either party, or undertake to advise or assist any party in suit before him.

POWER OF JUSTICES.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That when an executor or administrator shall be guilty of committing waste, whereby he is rendered unable to pay the judgment recovered before any Justice of the Peace, against the goods and estate of the deceased in his hands, out of the same, the Justice may proceed against the proper goods and estate of such executor or administrator, in the same manner as the Circuit Court of Common Pleas are empowered to do.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That each Justice of the Peace shall keep a fair record of all his proceedings; and when any Justice of the Peace shall die before a judgment given by him is paid and satisfied, it shall be in the power of any Justice of the Peace in the same county to grant a scire facias upon the same judgment, to the party against whom such judgment was rendered up, for him to show cause if any he hath, why execution should not be issued against him. And although the costs and debt awarded by the deceased Justice when added together, shall amount to more than twenty dollars, it shall be no bar upon such scire facias, but judgment shall be given thereon for the whole debt and cost, together with the cost arising upon the scire facias. Provided always, That either party may appeal from the judgment as in other personal actions, where judgment is given by a Justice of the Peace. And every Justice of the Peace who shall have complaint made to him, that a judgment given by a Justice of the same county then deceased, remains unsatisfied, shall issue his summons to the person in whose possession the record of the same judgment is, directing him to bring and to produce to him the same record; and if such person shall contemptuously refuse to produce the same record, or shall refuse to be examined respecting the same, upon oath, the Justice may punish the contempt by imprisonment, until he shall produce the same, or until he submits to be examined as aforesaid; and when the Justice is possessed of such record, he shall transcribe the same upon his own book of records, before he shall issue his scire facias; and shall deliver the original back again to the person who shall have produced it, and a copy of such transcription, attested by the transcribing Justice, shall be allowed in evidence in all cases, where an authenticated copy of the original might be received.

SEC. 16. Be it further enacted, That all Justices of the Peace before whom actions may be commenced under former commissions, and such commissions shall expire before judgment shall be rendered thereon, or judgment being rendered, the same remains in whole or in part unsatisfied, such Justices of the Peace who shall hereafter have their said commissions seasonably renewed, and being duly qualified agreeably to the Constitution of this State, to act under such commissions, be and they hereby are authorized and empowered to render judgment, and issue execution on all such ac-

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

VIRGINIA,

PASSED AT THE SESSION OF 1838,

COMMENCING 1ST JANUARY, 1838, AND ENDING 9TH APRIL, 1838,

IN THE

SIXTY-SECOND YEAR OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

RICHMOND:

PRINTED BY THOMAS RITCHIE,
Printer to the Commonwealth.

1838.

Free Negroes.—Burning in Hand.—Concealed Weapons.

CHAP. 99.—An ACT to prevent free persons of colour who leave the state from returning to it in certain cases.

(Passed April 7, 1838.)

Free negroes leaving state to be educated not permitted to return.

Infants so returning how dealt with.

Adults how punished.

Commencement.

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That if any free person of colour, whether infant or adult, shall go or be sent or carried beyond the limits of this commonwealth for the purpose of being educated, he or she shall be deemed to have emigrated from the state, and it shall not be lawful for him or her to return to the same; and if any such person shall return within the limits of the state contrary to the provisions of this act, he or she being an infant, shall be bound out as an apprentice until the age of twenty-one years, by the overseers of the poor of the county or corporation where he or she may be, and at the expiration of that period, shall be sent out of the state agreeably to the provisions of the laws now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted to prohibit the migration of free persons of colour to this state; and if such person be an adult, he or she shall be sent in like manner out of the commonwealth; and if any person having been so sent off, shall thereafter return within the state, he or she so offending shall be dealt with and punished in the same manner as is or may be prescribed by law in relation to other persons of colour returning to the state after having been sent therefrom.

2. This act shall be in force from and after the first day of August next.

CHAP. 100.—An ACT abolishing the punishment of burning in the hand in all cases.

(Passed February 8, 1838.)

Burning in hand abolished.

Commencement.

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That so much of any law of this commonwealth as authorizes or inflicts the punishment of burning in the hand in any case whatever, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed. And every person who may be hereafter convicted of any offence within the benefit of clergy, shall be punished in the mode now prescribed by law, except only the burning in the hand.

2. This act shall be in force from the passing thereof.

CHAP. 101.—An ACT to prevent the carrying of concealed weapons.

[Passed February 9, 1838.]

Penalty for carrying concealed weapons.

Courts to ascertain if murders or felonies be perpetrated by concealed weapons.

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That if any person shall hereafter habitually or generally keep or carry about his person any pistol, dirk, bowie knife, or any other weapon of the like kind, from the use of which the death of any person might probably ensue, and the same be hidden or concealed from common observation, and he be thereof convicted, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the common jail for a term not less than one month nor more than six months, and in each instance at the discretion of the jury; and a moiety of the penalty recovered in any prosecution under this act, shall be given to any person who may voluntarily institute the same.

2. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall hereafter be examined in any county or corporation court upon a charge of murder or felony, perpetrated by shooting, stabbing, maiming, cutting or wounding, and it shall appear that the offence charged was in fact committed by any such weapon as is above mentioned, and that the same was hidden or concealed from or kept out of the view of the person against whom it was used, until within the space of one half hour next preceding the commission of the act, or the infliction of the wound, which shall be charged to have caused the death, or constituted the felony, it shall be the duty of the examining court to state that the fact did so appear from the evidence; and if the court shall discharge or acquit the accused, such discharge or acquittal shall be no bar to an indictment for the same offence in the superior court having jurisdiction thereof, provided the same be found within one year thereafter. And whether the accused shall be by such court sent on for further trial or discharged, it shall be lawful to charge in the indictment that the offence was committed in any of the modes herein before described; and upon the trial it shall be the duty of the jury (if they find the accused not guilty of the murder or felony) to find also whether the act charged was in fact committed by the accused, though not feloniously, and whether the same was committed or done with or by means of any pistol, dirk, bowie knife, or other dangerous weapon, which was concealed from or kept out of the view of the person on or against whom it was used, for the space before mentioned, next preceding such use thereof; and if the jury find that the act was so committed, they shall assess a fine against the accused, and it shall be lawful for the court to pronounce judgment as in cases of misdemeanor.

3. This act shall be in force from and after the first day of June next.

CHAP. 102.—An ACT to extend the act for the temporary relief of the banks of this commonwealth.

(Passed February 20, 1836.)

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That the first, second and seventh sections of the act passed on the twenty-fourth day of June, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, entitled, "an act for the temporary relief of the banks of this commonwealth, and for other purposes," shall be, and the same are hereby continued in force till the twentieth day of March next.

2. Be it further enacted, That so much of the provisions of the act, entitled, "an act increasing the banking capital of the commonwealth," passed March the twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, as relates to the Bank of Virginia, the Farmers bank of Virginia, and the Bank of the Valley of Virginia, shall be and the same is hereby suspended until the first day of April next.

3. This act shall commence and be in force from the passage thereof.

CHAP. 103.—An ACT further to extend the act for the temporary relief of the banks of this commonwealth.

[Passed March 16, 1838.]

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That the first, second and seventh sections of the act passed on the twenty-fourth day of June, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, entitled, "an act for the temporary relief of the banks of this commonwealth," be and the same is hereby continued in force till the expiration of the present session of the legislature, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

the condition, without an affirmation of the judgment or order of the magistrate, and shall also stand as a security for any costs which shall be ordered by the court appealed to, to be paid by the appellant.

§ 13. Any person committed for not finding sureties, or refusing to recognize as required by the court or magistrate, may be discharged. Not recog- nizing, how discharged.

§ 14. Every recognizance taken in pursuance of the foregoing provisions shall be transmitted by the magistrate to the district court for the county on or before the first day of the next term, and shall be there filed of record by the clerk. Recogni- zances trans- mitted to court.

§ 15. Any person who shall, in the presence of any magistrate mentioned in the first section of this statute, or before any court of record, make an affray, or threaten to kill or beat another, or to commit any violence or outrage against his person or property, and every person who, in the presence of such court or magistrate, shall contend, with hot and angry words, to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered, without process or any other proof, to recognize for keeping the peace and being of good behavior, for a term not exceeding six months, and in case of refusal may be committed as before directed. When re- quired on view of court, &c.

§ 16. If any person shall go armed with a dirk, dagger, sword, pistol or pistols, or other offensive and dangerous weapon, without reasonable cause to fear an assault or other injury, or violence to his person, or to his family, or property, he may, on complaint of any other person having reasonable cause to fear an injury or breach of the peace, be required to find sureties for keeping the peace for a term not exceeding six months, with the right of appealing as before provided. Persons go- ing armed to give securi- ty, &c.

§ 17. Whenever, upon a suit brought on any such recognizance, the penalty thereof shall be adjudged forfeited, the court may remit such portion of the penalty on the petition of any defendant, as the circumstances of the case shall render just and reasonable. Part of pe- nalty remit- ted.

§ 18. Any surety in a recognizance to keep the peace or for good behavior or both, shall have the same authority and right to take and surrender his principal as if he had been bail for him in a civil cause, and upon such surrender shall be discharged and exempt from all liability for any act of the principal subsequent to such surrender, which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance; and the person so surrendered may recognize anew, with sufficient sureties, before any justice of the peace for the residue of the term, and thereupon shall be discharged. Surety may surrend- er principal.

AN ACT making general provisions concerning crimes and punishments.

§ 1. That every person who shall be aiding in the commission of any offence, which shall be a felony either at common law or by any statute now made, or which shall be hereafter made, or who shall be accessory thereto before the fact, by counselling, hiring or otherwise procuring such felony to be committed, shall be punished in the same manner as is or shall be prescribed for the punishment of the principal felon. Accessory to felony be- fore the fact, how punish- ed.

sons, and each and every individual of said company, corporation, or unchartered banking association, so making, issuing, emitting, or putting in circulation, such note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or other paper, shall be held to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined for every such offence, at the discretion of the jury trying the same, not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, and, upon failure to pay the fine, shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding twelve months.

Signing such note, bill, &c. as president, cashier, or otherwise, for any such company.

§ 2. If any person or persons shall sign any note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or any paper of other name or description whatsoever, as cashier, or president, or under any other name, or in the name of any company, incorporation, or unchartered banking association, to be put in circulation to answer the purposes of money, such president, or cashier, or other person, under any other name, so signing said note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or paper as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to be indicted, and, upon conviction, shall be fined for every such offence, in a sum not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the jury trying the same, and the signatures of the person or persons, so charged, to the note, bond, bill, draft, check, post note, or paper aforesaid, shall be taken and held to be proof of such signing, unless the fact of signing be denied on oath by the defendant.

Unlawful to pass any such paper.

§ 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, within the limits of this state, to pass off, issue, emit, or put in circulation, any note, bill, bond, check, draft, or post note, of any incorporation, company, or unchartered banking association; and any person or persons, violating the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to be indicted, and, upon conviction, shall be fined for every such note, bill, bond, check, draft, post note, or other paper so issued, emitted, passed off, or put in circulation, not less than twenty, nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the jury trying said offence.

Penalty.

Carrying concealed weapons, unless there be cause to apprehend an attack, or person be travelling.

§ 4. Every one, who shall hereafter carry concealed about his person, a bowie knife, or knife or instrument of the like kind or description, by whatever name called, dirk or any other deadly weapon, pistol or any species of fire arms, or air gun, unless such person shall be threatened with, or have good cause to apprehend an attack, or be traveling, or setting out on a journey, shall, on conviction, be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars:

Burthen of proof, as to excuse—but none sufficient as to air gun, bowie knife, &c.

It shall devolve on the person setting up the excuse here allowed for carrying concealed weapons, to make it out by proof, to the satisfaction of the jury; but no excuse shall be sufficient to authorize the carrying of an air gun, bowie knife, or knife of the like kind or description.

Illegal voting at elections.

§ 5. If any person shall, at the same election, vote more than once for the same candidate for the same office, or for different candidates for the same office, either in the same or in different precincts, or vote, when he is not legally authorized so to do, he shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined in the sum of two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year.

How punished.

Apothecary selling poisonous drugs, without label.

§ 6. Every apothecary, druggist, or other person, who shall sell and deliver any arsenic, corrosive sublimate, prussic acid, or other substance, either solid or liquid, usually denominated poisonous,

10. Magistrate may adjourn examination.
11. In case of default, recognition to be certified.
12. Proceedings when party fails to recognize.
13. Manner of conducting examination.
14. Testimony to be reduced to writing.

SECTION

17. When prisoner to be discharged.
18. When to be bailed or committed.
19. If party entitled to examination, &c.
20. If not so entitled, and triable on indictment, &c.
21. If party charged be free negro, &c.
22. Duty of magistrate, &c.
23. Witnesses to recognize.
24. Witnesses, when to recognize with sureties.
25. Recognizances of minors, &c.
26. Witnesses refusing to recognize.
27. Magistrate may associate others.
28. Prisoner by whom let to bail.
29. Recognizances, &c. to be returned.
30. Commitments, &c. when to be discharged.
31. Orders therefor, how to be filed &c.
32. Proceedings on forfeited recognizances.
33. Right of surety to surrender principal.
37. To whom to be surrendered.
38. When to the court.

1. For the apprehension of persons charged with offences, the judges of the general court, and all justices of the peace in vacation as well as in term time, are authorized to issue process to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

2. Upon complaint made to any such magistrate that a criminal offence has been committed, he shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses produced by him, and shall reduce the complaint to writing, and cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant; and if it shall appear that any such offence has been committed, or there is just cause to believe that any such offence has been committed, the court or justice shall issue a warrant reciting the substance of the accusation, and requiring the officer to whom it shall be directed, forthwith to take the person accused and bring him before the said court or justice, or before some other court or magistrate of the county or corporation, to be dealt with according to law, and in the same warrant may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named, to appear and give evidence on the examination.

Offence committed in another county, prisoner to be conveyed there.

3. If the offence charged in the warrant be committed in any county or corporation other than that in which the warrant shall be issued, the magistrate or court before whom the person arrested may be brought, shall by warrant commit the prisoner to the custody of the officer having him in charge, or some other officer, to be by him conveyed to the county or corporation in which the offence was committed, and there taken before some magistrate thereof, and for that purpose such officer may command the necessary aid; and the warrant with the proper return thereon, signed by the officer, shall be delivered to such magistrate, who shall proceed with the case in the same manner as if the arrest had been by virtue of a warrant originally issued by him, or if the offence charged is not punishable with death or by confinement in the penitentiary, such magistrate or court may take from the person so arrested a recognizance, with sufficient sureties for his appearance at the court having cognizance of the offence, and next to be holden in the county where it shall be alleged to have been committed, and the person arrested shall thereupon be discharged; and the magistrate or court so letting such person to bail, shall certify that fact upon the warrant, and shall cause the same, together with the recognizance taken, to be delivered without delay to the clerk of the court before which the accused was recognized to appear.

Proceedings under warrant.

When party may be bailed and discharged.

Return of warrant and bail to proper court.

4. If any person against whom a warrant shall be issued for an alleged offence committed within any county or corporation, shall either before or after the issuing such warrant escape from or be out of the same, the officer to whom such warrant may be directed may pursue and apprehend the party charged in any county or corporation of this state, and for that purpose may command and exercise the same authority as in his own county or corporation.

Where warrant may be executed.

5. In all cases where the offence charged in the warrant is not punishable with death, or by confinement in the penitentiary, if the person arrested shall request that he may be brought before a magistrate of the county or corporation in which the arrest was made, for the purpose of entering into a recognizance, without a trial or examination, the officer who made the arrest shall carry him before a magistrate of that county or corporation, who may take from the person arrested a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, for his appearance at the court having cognizance of the offence, and next to be holden in the county or corporation where it shall be alleged to have been committed, and the party arrested shall thereupon be liberated.

Right to be brought before magistrate where arrested.

6. The magistrate who shall so let the person arrested to bail, shall certify that fact upon the warrant, and shall deliver the same with the recognizance by him taken to the person who made the arrest, who shall cause the same to be delivered without delay to the clerk of the court before which the accused was recognized to appear; and on application of the complainant, the magistrate who issued the warrant, shall cause such witnesses as he may think necessary to be summoned to the same court.

May be bailed.

Return of recognizance and warrant.

Witnesses to be recognized.

7. If the magistrate in the county or corporation where the arrest was made shall refuse to let to bail the person so arrested and brought before him, or if no sufficient bail shall be offered, the officer having him in charge shall take him before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or before some other magistrate of the county or corporation in which the warrant was issued, to be proceeded with as hereafter directed.

8. When the offence charged in any warrant is punishable with death or by confinement in the penitentiary, the officer making the arrest in some other county or corporation shall convey the prisoner to the county or corporation where the warrant was issued, and he shall be proceeded with in the manner hereinabove directed.

9. Every person arrested by warrant for any offence where no other provision is made for his examination thereon, shall be brought before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or before some other magistrate of the same county or corporation, and the warrant, with a proper return thereon, signed by the person who made the arrest, shall be delivered to the magistrate.

10. Any magistrate may adjourn an examination or trial pending before himself, from time to time, as occasion shall require, not exceeding ten days at any one time, without the consent of the accused, and to the same or a different place in the county, as he shall think proper; and in such case, if the party is charged with a felonious offence, he shall be committed in the mean time, otherwise he may be recognized in a sum and with securities to the satisfaction of the magistrate, for his appearance for such further examination, and for want of such recognizance he shall be committed to prison.

11. If the person so recognized shall not appear before the magistrate at the time appointed for his further examination, according to the condition of such recognizance, the magistrate shall record the default, and shall certify the recognizance, with the record of such default, to the county court at its next term, and like proceedings shall be had thereon, as upon the breach of the condition of a recognizance for appearance before that court.

12. When such person shall fail to recognize, he may be committed to prison by an order under the hand of the magistrate, stating concisely that he is committed for further examination on a future day, to be named in the order, and on the day appointed he may be brought before the magistrate by his verbal order to the same officer by whom he was committed, or by an order in writing to a different person.

13. The magistrate before whom any person is brought upon a charge of having committed an offence, shall, as soon as may be, examine the complainant, and the witnesses to support the prosecution, on oath, in the presence of the party charged, touching any matters connected with such charge as may be deemed pertinent.

14. After the testimony to support the prosecution, the witnesses for the prisoner, if he have any, shall be sworn and examined, and he may be assisted by counsel in such examination, and also in the cross-examination of the witnesses in support of the prosecution.

15. The magistrate while examining any witness, may at his discretion, exclude from the place of examination all the other witnesses; he may also, if requested, or if he think proper, direct the witnesses for or against the prisoner, to be kept separate, so that they cannot converse with each other until they shall have been examined.

16. The testimony of the witnesses examined shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, when he shall think fit.

When prisoner to be discharged.

it necessary, and shall be signed by the witnesses if required by the magistrate.

When to be bailed or committed.

17. If it shall appear to the magistrate upon the whole examination that no offence has been committed, or that there is not probable cause for charging the prisoner with the offence, he shall be discharged.

If entitled to examining court, to be bailed or committed therefor.

18. If it shall appear that an offence has been committed, and that there is probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty, and if the offence be bailable by the magistrate, and the prisoner offer sufficient bail, it shall be taken and the prisoner discharged; but if no sufficient bail be offered, or the offence be not bailable by the magistrate, the prisoner shall be committed to prison for trial or examination.

If not, and tried on indictment, like proceedings therefor.

19. If the offence be one for which the party charged may be entitled to the benefit of an examining court before trial, the magistrate shall bail or commit him for examination before the next succeeding court of his county or corporation.

If party charged be a slave or free negro.

20. If the offence be one for which the party charged may not be entitled to the benefit of an examining court, and may be tried on an indictment, the magistrate shall bail or commit him to answer any indictment which may be found against him therefor at the next court of his county or corporation in which a grand jury may be impaneled for such county or corporation.

Return of magistrate where, when and how made.

21. If the offence be felony, and the party charged a slave, free negro or mulatto, except in the case of free negroes and mulattoes charged with felonious homicide, or any offence punishable with death, the magistrate shall bail or commit him for trial at his next succeeding county or corporation court.

Clerk to inform prosecuting attorney.
To exhibit return to court.

22. If the party charged be bailed or committed for examination or trial, or to answer an indictment as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to return to the clerk of his county or corporation court, on or before the first day of the next term thereof, a certificate stating the nature of the offence, and that the party charged was so bailed or committed therefor; and it shall be the duty of the said clerk forthwith to inform the attorney for the commonwealth in said court that such certificate had been so returned, and to exhibit it to the said court as soon as may be after it shall have been received by him.

Witnesses to be recognized.

23. When the prisoner is admitted to bail or committed by the magistrate, he shall also bind by recognizance such witnesses against the prisoner as he shall deem material, to appear and testify at the next court having cognizance of the offence, and in which the prisoner shall be held to answer.

When, with securities.

24. If the magistrate shall be satisfied that there is good cause to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his recognizance, unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into a recognizance with such securities as may be deemed necessary for his appearance at court.

Recognizances of females, coverts, minors or slaves.

25. When any married woman or minor or slave is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may in his discretion, take the recognizance of such married woman or minor, in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of coverture or minority.

Witnesses refusing to recognize, committed.

26. All witnesses required to recognize either with or without securities, shall if they refuse, be committed to jail by the magistrate, there to remain until they comply with such order, or be otherwise discharged according to law.

27. Any magistrate to whom complaint is made, or before whom any prisoner is brought, may associate with himself one or more of the magistrates of the same county, and they may together execute the powers and duties before mentioned.

28. The circuit superior courts of law and chancery, and the county courts of the several counties, and any judge or justice thereof in vacation, on application of any prisoner committed for a bailable offence, or of any person committed for not finding sufficient securities to recognize for him, may enquire into the case and admit such prisoner or person to bail: Provided, That no person shall be admitted to bail by a justice of the peace in a less sum than was required by the order of commitment.

29. All examinations and recognizances taken by any magistrate, pursuant to the provisions of this act, shall be certified and returned by him to the clerk of the court before which the party charged is bound to appear, on or before the first day of the sitting thereof; and if such magistrate shall refuse or neglect to return the same, he may be compelled forthwith by rule of court, and in case of disobedience, may be proceeded against by attachment as for a contempt.

30. When any person shall be committed to prison, or be under recognizance to answer to any charge of assault and battery, or other misdemeanor, for which the party injured may have a remedy by civil action, except when the offence was committed by or upon any sheriff or other officer of justice, or riotously, or with intent to commit a felony, if the party injured shall appear before the magistrate who made the commitment or took the recognizance, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may in his discretion, on payment of the costs that have accrued, discharge the recognizance, or supersede the commitment, by an order under his hand, and may also discharge all recognizances, and supersede the commitment of all witnesses in the case.

31. Every such order of the magistrate discharging the recognizance of the party or witnesses, shall be filed in the office of the clerk before the sitting of the court at which they are bound to appear, and every order superseding the commitment of the party charged, or of any witness, shall be delivered to the keeper of the jail in which he is confined, who shall forthwith discharge him; and bar to civil action, for ever bar all remedy by civil action for such injury.

32. When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer or to prosecute an appeal, or to testify in any court, shall fail to perform the condition of such recognizance, his default shall be recorded, and process shall be issued against the persons bound by the recognizance, or such of them as the prosecuting attorney shall direct.

33. Any surety in such recognizance may, by leave of the court, after default, and either before or after the process has been issued against him, pay into court the amount for which he was bound as surety, with such costs as the court shall direct, and be thereupon forever discharged.

34. When any action is brought on behalf of the commonwealth against a principal or surety in any recognizance, entered into either by a party or a witness, in any criminal prosecution, and the penalty of such recognizance shall be adjudged to be forfeited, the court may, on application of the party defendant, and if a county court, with the assent of the prosecuting attorney, remit any part or the whole of such penalty, and may render judgment thereon for the commonwealth upon such terms and conditions as shall seem just and reasonable.

What neglect or omissions no bar to action and no arrest of proceedings.

35. No such action brought on a recognizance, as mentioned in the preceding section, shall be barred or defeated, nor shall judgment thereon be arrested, by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety, at the term when such default shall happen, nor by reason of any defect in the form of the recognizance, if it sufficiently appear from the tenor thereof at what court the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the court or magistrate before whom it was taken, was authorized by law to require and take such recognizance.

Right of surety to surrender principal.

36. Every surety in a recognizance shall have the same authority to take and surrender his principal, as if he had been bail for him in a civil cause, and upon such surrender shall be discharged and exempt from all liability for any act of the principal subsequent to such surrender, which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance.

To whom to be surrendered.

37. If the recognizance be entered into before a judge or justice of the peace, the surrender shall be made to the judge or justice before whom the same was entered into, or to some other justice of the same county, and the person so surrendered, may recognize anew, with sufficient sureties, for the residue of the term, and thereupon shall be discharged, and upon his failure so to recognize, shall be committed for the residue of the term as before directed.

Who in surrender may be to court.

38. If the recognizance be entered into before a court, the surrender shall be made to the court if in session, and thereupon such order shall be taken in the case as the court may deem proper, and if the court be not in session, the surrender shall be made to the sheriff, sergeant or jailor of the county or corporation, and such sheriff, sergeant or jailor shall receive such defendant and commit him to the jail of his county or corporation, and give his receipt for his body, which shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court wherein the recognizance was entered into, and the court at its next session shall take such order in the case as to it may seem proper.

shall be forever precluded from claiming and showing that said taxes have not been paid, but it shall be taken as conclusively proved that said taxes have been paid.

Provided, however, that in all cases where the selectmen of any town in this state have heretofore returned to the town clerk a list of the names of persons whose state or town taxes have been by them abated, and have neglected to subscribe their names thereto, the same shall not, by reason of such neglect, be thereby invalidated, and may be proved by any other proper evidence.

SEC. 4. Any collector of taxes knowingly and designedly making a false certificate, and any selectman of any town knowingly and designedly making a false list of persons whose taxes shall be abated under this act, shall pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars; said offence to be a crime, and to be prosecuted and proceeded with like other criminal offences.

SEC. 5. The fifth section of the act to which this is an addition, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

Approved, June 24th, 1859.

Omission of signatures of selectmen not to invalidate lists of abatements heretofore made.

Penalty for making false certificate or list.

CHAPTER LXXXII.

An Act in addition to and in alteration of "An Act for forming and conducting the Military Force."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

SEC. 1. There shall be one parade annually, sometime in the month of May, for one day only, by company; also one parade annually, for one day only, by regiment or brigade, in the month of August or September, as the commanding officer of the division shall direct, with the approval of the commander-in-chief.

SEC. 2. Chaplains, surgeons, paymasters, engineers and sergeant-majors, may appear on horseback only on days of general review; on all other occasions, they shall appear on foot.

SEC. 3. Every company that shall comply with the provisions of the military laws, shall be allowed, out of the state treasury, the sum of seventy-five dollars per annum, as rent for armory and drill-room, upon a certificate from the adjutant-general that such company is justly entitled to receive the same.

Allowance to governor's guards.

SEC. 4. Any company of governor's guards which shall do duty in accordance with the provisions of law, shall be allowed seventy-five dollars per annum for armory rent.

Temporary erec-tions for sale of liquors or gambling, near parade ground, may be abated as nuisances.

SEC. 5. If any booth, shed, tent, or other temporary erection, within one mile of any military parade-ground, muster-field or encampment, shall be used and occupied for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or for the purpose of gambling, the officer commanding said parade-ground, muster-field or encampment, the sheriff or deputy-sheriff of the county, or any justice of the peace, selectman, or constable of the town in which such booth, shed, tent, or other temporary erection is situated, upon having notice or knowledge that the same is so used or occupied, shall notify the owner or occupant thereof to vacate and close the same immediately; and, if said owner or occupant shall refuse or neglect so to do, said commanding officer, sheriff, deputy-sheriff, justice of the peace, selectman or constable, may forthwith abate such booth, shed, tent, or other such temporary erection, as a nuisance, and may pull down or otherwise destroy the same, with the assistance of any force, civil or military.

Board of officers may be appointed to prepare system of regulations.

SEC. 6. The commander-in-chief is hereby authorized to appoint a board of officers to prepare a system of general regulations for the government of the militia, for which services no compensation shall be claimed or allowed.

Quarter-master-general to inspect armorios, gun-houses, &c., annually.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the quarter-master-general, annually, to inspect the armories and gun-houses of the several companies, and also the rooms occupied by the regimental bands; and, on or before the first day of November, to make to the adjutant-general a full report of the condition of the same, and what companies are entitled to the allowance for armory rent; for which services he shall be allowed the sum of nine cents for every mile of necessary travel.

Companies may adopt and enforce regulations, and by laws.

SEC. 8. Each company may adopt, by a vote of two-thirds of its members, rules, regulations and by-laws for the government of its members, not inconsistent with the militia laws; and such rules, regulations and by-laws shall be binding, and may be enforced by process of law; and any member who shall violate any such rule, regulation or by-law, may be expelled from his company by a major vote of the same, provided that such vote is approved by the commander of the regiment.

SEC. 9. Assessors of persons liable to pay the compensation of commutation tax, as provided in section nine of the act approved June 28, 1856, shall be allowed the sum of one cent for each person so assessed; and each collector of commutation taxes shall be allowed the sum of two cents for each tax actually collected and paid into the town treasury by him; and, if any assessor or collector shall refuse or neglect to perform the duty required by said act, he shall forfeit to the state not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 10. Second lieutenants of companies are hereby required to attend the officers' drill, established by act approved June 29, 1855, and to comply with all laws relative thereto.

SEC. 11. This act shall take effect from and after its passage; and section twenty-eight, of the act approved July 1, 1854,—section one, of the act approved June 28, 1856,—section one, section nine, of the act approved June 25, 1857,—and all other acts or parts of acts, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed. Section three, of the act approved June 29th, 1855, is hereby re-enacted.

Approved, June 24th, 1859.

CHAPTER LXXXIII.

An Act concerning Communities and Corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

The secretaries or clerks of all stock fire and fire and marine insurance companies who are by law required to make returns to the comptroller, in the month of January of each year, shall, at the time of making said return, pay the expense of making the record of the same.

Approved, June 24th, 1859.

receive, or agree for in any way, any bribe, present, or reward to him offered, for the purpose of obtaining or influencing his opinion, judgment, verdict, sentence, report or award, in any matter or cause depending, or to be tried before him alone, or before him with others, he shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years, nor less than one year, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, nor less than one month, and be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

SEC. 74. If any executive, judicial, or ministerial officer, or member of the legislative assembly, shall accept or receive, or agree to accept or receive, in any way, any bribe, present, or reward to him offered, for the purpose of inducing or influencing such officer to appoint any person to office, to give any vote, or to execute any of the powers in him vested, or perform any duty of him required, with partiality or favor, or otherwise than is required by law, or in consideration that such officer hath appointed any person to any office, or voted or exercised any power in him vested, or performed any duty of him required with partiality or favor, or otherwise, contrary to law, he shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten years, nor less than one year, or in the county jail not more than one year, nor less than three months, and be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars.

SEC. 75. Every person who shall bribe, or offer or attempt to bribe, any of the officers mentioned in the two preceding sections, shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the county jail any length of time not exceeding one year, and be fined in any sum not exceeding two thousand dollars, or fined only.

SEC. 76. Every person who shall convey into any penitentiary, jail or house of correction, or house of reformation, any disguise, or any instrument, tool, weapon or other thing, adapted to, or useful, in aiding any prisoner there, lawfully committed or detained, to make escape, or shall by any means whatever aid or assist any such prisoner, in his endeavor to escape therefrom, whether such escape be attempted or effected or not; and every person who shall aid or assist any prisoner in escaping, or in attempting to escape from any officer or person who shall have the lawful custody of such prisoner, or who shall forcibly rescue any prisoner from lawful custody of such persons, shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than four years, nor less than one year, or imprisoned in the county jail any length of time not exceeding one year, and be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

SEC. 77. If any jailor or other officer shall voluntarily suffer any prisoner in his custody, charged with or convicted of any criminal offense,
